Returning Fire Col. James W. Booth,2011-09-28 This book is the factual story of the development of armed helicopters in the US Army and their first employment in combat The story is dramatically told by the courageous men who lived it flying daily into enemy infested areas facing murderous fire from automatic and anti aircraft weapons In late 1961 the US Government deployed five Transportation Helicopter Companies H 21 lift ships to South Vietnam to increase the mobility of South Vietnamese ground forces The Viet Cong quickly recognized that the H 21s were unarmed and began shooting at them endangering the lives of American crewmen A helicopter company equipped with 25 UH 1 helicopters had been cobbled together on Okinawa by the Commander US Army Pacific Believing the company was soon to be deployed to Vietnam the men assigned to the unit armed its helicopters by scrounging weapons systems left over from WW II and Korea stored in Army Air Force depots in Okinawa Machine guns and 2 75 inch rockets were jury rigged onto the UH 1s Officially designated the Utility Tactical Helicopter Company but widely known as the UTT the company deployed to Saigon in September 1962 After some jurisdictional squabbles with the Air Force over roles and missions UTT began combat operations in October It quickly became widely known for professionalism and the courage of its crew members Such was its fame that for years South Vietnamese military personnel called all armed helicopters UTT Unfortunately over its years in RVN the Company endured frequent designation changes UTT 68th 197th 334th Armed Helicopter Company Why remains a mystery even today The Companys legacy is strong and endures today Armed helicopters are a major component of US Army combat forces The current Army Apache

A Return to Sanditon Anne Toledo,2011-02-15 For real lovers of Jane Austen s work a completion of her unfinished Sanditon as she might possibly have envisaged it herself No zombies or other anachronistic gimmicks but a number of interlaced love stories set against a gently satirical picture of the fads and fancies of the times above all the rising fashion for sea bathing and the greed and folly that accompanied it When Charlotte Heywood leaves her large and conservative family of Kentish landowners to stay with the Parkers in the new resort of Sanditon she expects nothing more than a tranquil seaside holiday She soon however becomes involved in the life of the little town and is challenged to measure her own traditional values and tastes against those of financial speculators affected social climbers fashionable hypochondriacs and followers of the new romantic ideas in the arts and human behaviour Her initial attitude is that of an amused spectator but soon to her own surprise she finds herself falling in love with her host s younger brother the witty and fascinating Sidney Parker Sidney however leaves Sanditon abruptly in the company of Charlotte s beautiful and enigmatic friend Clara Brereton with whom Sir Edward Denham penniless nephew of the town s patroness and Sgreat lady is in love to his avaricious aunt s displeasure and the town buzzes with rumours of an elopement Anne Toledo has taught English Literature at university level for many years specialising in the nineteenth century novel in general and in Jane Austen in particular She is a devoted Janeite and hopes that this story will appeal to those who share her love and appreciation of Jane Austen s work at all levels as romance as humorous observation and as moral satire and also as a fascinating picture of daily life in middle class England in the years immediately following the Napoleonic wars Herold Der Wahrheit ,1912 The Burroughs Clearing House ,1943
