Boston Ball Clayton Trutor,2023-11 Rick Pitino Jim Calhoun and Gary Williams played no small role in the making of modern college basketball Collectively they've won more than 2 300 games and six national championships and reached thirteen Final Fours All three have been enshrined in the Basketball Hall of Fame Pitino Calhoun and Williams each spent more than two decades on the national stage becoming celebrities in their own right as college basketball and March Madness became a multi billion dollar industry Before Pitino became the face of the Providence Kentucky and Louisville programs before Calhoun turned UConn into a national power and before Williams brought Maryland to its first national championship all three of these coaches cut their teeth in front of modest sized crowds in the crumbling college gymnasiums of Boston during the 1970s and early 1980s Boston Ball charts how this trio of coaches seemingly out of nowhere started a basketball revolution Pitino at Boston University Calhoun at Northeastern University and Williams at Boston College Toiling in relative obscurity they ignited a renaissance of the city game a style of play built on fast breaking up tempo offense pressure defense and board crashing Part of a fraternity of great coaches including Mike Jarvis Kevin Mackey and Tom Davis they unknowingly invented Boston Ball a simultaneously old and new path to the top of college basketball Pitino Calhoun and Williams took advantage of the ample coaching opportunities in America's College Town to craft their respective blueprints for building a winning program and turn their schools into regional powers and these early coaching years served as their respective springboards to big time college basketball Boston Ball is the story of how three ambitious young coaches learned their trade in the shadow of the dynastic Celtics as well as the story of how the young players in their recruitment relationships and basketball lives made these teams into winners
