Clifford Whittingham Beers,1917 In this autobiography Clifford Whittingham Beers describes his battle with insanity psychosis between the ages of 24 and 26 and his repeated committals to a series of mental hospitals where brutal and inhumane treatment caused more emotional trauma Beers argues the biographical part of my autobiography might be called the history of a mental civil war which I fought single handed on a battle field that lay within the compass of my skull An Army of Unreason composed of the cunning and treacherous thoughts of an unfair foe attacked my bewildered consciousness with cruel persistency and would have destroyed me had not a triumphant Reason finally interposed a superior strategy that saved me from my unnatural self He also notes that his purpose in telling his story is to address the needless abuse of helpless thousands in mental hospitals This autobiography provides a first hand account of the abuse of mentally disordered
