Swim, Bike, Bonk Will McGough, 2019-11-01 Just as George Plimpton had his proverbial cup of coffee in the NFL as the unrecruited and certainly unwanted fourth string quarterback for the Detroit Lions so too did Will McGough immerse himself in a sport he had no business trying. Like Plimpton whose football folly turned into the bestselling Paper Lion travel and outdoor writer McGough writes of his participation in around and over the course of one of the world's premier triathlons the annual 140.6 mile Ironman in Tempe, Arizona. McGough chronicles the Ironman's history, his unorthodox training, the pageantry of the race weekend, and his attempt to finish the epic event. The narrative follows not just his race but also explores the cult and habits of the triathlete community beginning with the first Ironman competition in Hawaii in 1978. This is a light-hearted, self-deprecating and at times hilarious look at one man's attempt to conquer the ultimate endurance sport with a conclusion that will surprise and delight both dedicated triathletes as well as strangers to the sport.

Mealttime and Bedtime Sing & Sign Anne Meeker-Miller, 2008-08-26 Finally a way to ease the most challenging times of day with baby. Since signed gestures enable babies to tell caregivers what they want and need before they can talk, mealttime and bedtime are occasions when signing can really come in handy. Based on Dr. Miller's popular workshops, Mealttime and Bedtime Sing & Sign is a user-friendly guide featuring over 200 signs with photos, instructions, and activities. An all-new 12-song CD with upbeat music followed by calm lullabies teaches and reinforces key signs. Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students, grades 6-12, that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development, promote literature appreciation, and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork. Supporting Reading Grades 6-12: A Guide addresses head-on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students' motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum, which stands for Read as a personal activity, Explore characteristics, history, and awards of creative works, Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works, Develop a literary-based product, and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly, describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals, in groups, and as school communities support classroom teachers' instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry/information skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner. Working Mother, 1993-12 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives. Business, the Magazine for Office, Store, and Factory, 1908 Building Boys Jennifer L. W. Fink, 2023-04-04 Offers parents tips and tools to help boys move beyond persistent gender stereotypes to full humanity. We want to raise well-rounded human beings; we're just not quite sure how best to do it Confounded by rapidly changing gender norms today s parents are attempting to raise kind compassionate emotionally sensitive boys in a society that simultaneously rewards stereotypical masculinity and is increasingly hostile to boys Surrounded by messages of female empowerment young boys ask their parents Why don t they ever say that boys can be anything they want to be Teaching boys to respect others will help them in the future but can make life awfully difficult in the here and now Making the world a safer place for women and girls is not the only reason to rethink our boy raising practices Current culture harms our boys too and they need and deserve as much support as girls and women Building Boys is written by an in the trenches boymom who intimately understands male development and the challenges currently facing boys and their families Fink offers ten rules that parents can use to guide their parenting choices throughout their sons lives guidelines that are as relevant to parenting toddlers as they are to parenting teenagers These rules range from emphasizing emotional intelligence to letting your son struggle and ultimately accepting him as he is Fink explains both the science and research behind each rule as well as stories and anecdotes from families including her own Parents are taught how to apply the rule to a variety of common parenting challenges And because these rules are broad they are as applicable to boys with ADHD autism and learning challenges as they are to neurotypical boys Early Years ,1986
