Rethinking the Music Business Guy Morrow, Daniel Nordgård, Peter Tschmuck, 2022-09-07
COVID 19 had a global impact on health communities and the economy
As a result of COVID 19 music festivals gigs and events were canceled or postponed across the world
This directly affected the incomes and practices of many artists and the revenue for many entities in the music business
Despite this crisis however there are pre existing trends in the music business the rise of the streaming economy technological change virtual and augmented reality blockchain etc and new copyright legislation
Some of these trends were impacted by the COVID 19 crisis while others were not
This book addresses these challenges and trends by following a two pronged approach the first part focuses on the impact of COVID 19 on the music business and the second features general perspectives
Throughout both parts case studies bring various themes to life
The contributors address issues within the music business before and during COVID 19
Using various critical approaches for studying the music business this research based book addresses key questions concerning music contexts rights data and COVID 19
Rethinking the music business is a valuable study aid for undergraduate and postgraduate students in subjects including the music business cultural economics cultural management creative and cultural industries studies business and management studies and media and communications

Don't Knock the Hustle S. Craig Watkins, 2019-05-07
Offers a timely analysis of the sheer ingenuity and persistence of young people who cobble together the resources they need to pursue the lives and careers they want
Young adults are coming of age at a time when work is temporary underpaid incommensurate with their education or downright unsatisfying
Despite these challenges media scholar S Craig Watkins argues that this moment of precarity is rife with opportunities for innovation and that young adults are leading the charge in turning that into an inventive and surprisingly sustainable future
As a result society is expanding its understanding of who we think of as innovators and what qualifies as innovation while wealth is spreading beyond traditional corridors of powerful tech companies venture capitalism and well endowed universities
Drawing on over ten years of interviews and data Watkins reveals the radical ways in which this community of ambitious young creatives is transforming businesses from the outside in
Diverse perspectives that are often ignored or silenced by major corporations are garnering public attention as women and people of color are redefining industries across the globe all from their computer screens
We meet people like Prince Harvey a New York based hip hop artist who recorded his album entirely on an Apple showroom laptop screenwriter producer and actor Issa Rae who first used
