The Death of the Artist William Deresiewicz, 2020-07-28 A deeply researched warning about how the digital economy threatens artists' lives and work the music writing and visual art that sustain our souls and societies from an award-winning essayist and critic There are two stories you hear about earning a living as an artist in the digital age One comes from Silicon Valley There's never been a better time to be an artist it goes If you've got a laptop you've got a recording studio If you've got an iPhone you've got a movie camera And if production is cheap distribution is free it's called the Internet Everyone's an artist just tap your creativity and put your stuff out there The other comes from artists themselves Sure it goes you can put your stuff out there but who's going to pay you for it Everyone is not an artist Making art takes years of dedication and that requires a means of
