Jozsa Jr., 2014-10-01 This Brief identifies and contrasts the groups of National Basketball Association NBA expansion franchises and of any teams that relocated from one metropolitan area or city to another from 1950 to 2013 It discusses historical differences and similarities in the teams markets and performances and then as members of divisions and conferences It measures and compares the emergence development and success of the teams by analyzing demographic economic and sport specific data It also discusses the respective mergers of the Basketball Association of America and National Basketball League in 1949 and the American Basketball Association and National Basketball Association in 1976 National Basketball Association Strategies makes an important relevant and useful contribution to the literature regarding professional sports operations and to the NBA s short and long run business strategies in American culture Besides numerous sports fans within metropolitan areas and extended markets of these NBA teams the book s audiences are sports historians and researchers college and public libraries and current and potential NBA franchise owners and team executives This Brief may also be used as a reference or supplemental text for college and university students enrolled in such applied undergraduate and graduate courses and seminars as sports administration sports business and sports management I Love Being the Enemy Reggie Miller, 1999-04 Reggie Miller on the New York Knicks I m telling you right now I hate the Knicks Absolutely hate those kids Face it The Knicks are dirty players Let me take the back They re not dirty players but when things aren't going New York's way they're going to do whatever it takes to win. And if that means hurting someone then they'll do it. I'm not going to say that's dirty but sometimes they take it to the extreme. On the mental side of the game Everybody in the NBA knows how to play basketball or else they wouldn't be there. But what separates the good players from the great players is their mental capacity not only to overcome their opponent but to get through the tough spots. I always feel mentally stronger than any opponent. I step on the same floor with him. He might have more talent than I do but I don't think anybody is mentally stronger than me. I'll match wills with anybody. On determination. On Cheryl Miller. Cheryl I got 39 Reggie that's great. Yeah so how'd you do? Uh I got 105. Thing was Cheryl didn't say it to be mean. But damn 105 points in one game. But I got my revenge a few years later. We got out to the court and she said Your ball. I told her she could have it first. So she kind of crouched down made her usual strong first move got right past me and put up the shot. Cheryl paused for a moment and then said in a real serious tone We're going to play Horseshoes.
