The Gender Gap in White-Collar Crime Maryam Kamaei, Petter Gottschalk, Thomas E. Dearden, 2025-05-07 In recent years women's involvement in business is more frequent leading to an interesting question Does this increase in economic participation by women lead to an increased proportion of women committing white collar crime Employing a variety of theoretical perspectives and empirical works to explain women's white collar crimes from an international perspective this new book helps to answer this question by extensively studying white collar crime focusing on the disparity in such crimes between men and women It also looks at how pink collar crime differs dramatically in different countries with case studies from countries such as Norway US Iran Denmark and others to further enhance the understanding of the explained concepts The volume offers a specific focus on the convenience theory an integrated theory created by Dr Petter Gottschalk one of the authors of this book to explain general white collar crime With authors geographically located around the world adding an international focus and given the diverse participation of women in economic systems around the world the volume also focuses on crimes of convenience in cybercrime by considering the importance of gender in the history of internet crime and the relationship between cybercrime and white collar crime The authors also suggest potential paths for future gender research on women in white collar crime and convenience theory

Breadcrumbs and Burning Bushes: Tracing God's Clues and Encounters Dr. Tarasha Lloyd, 2025-09-22 If you've ever felt God speak through whispers symbols or sudden sparks of clarity this devotional is for you Breadcrumbs and Burning Bushes Tracing God's Clues and Encounters is a 21 day devotional that invites you to notice and respond to the subtle ways God guides your path With heartfelt reflections scripture meditations and spirit led prompts you'll be drawn into the quiet places where his voice becomes clear Whether you're in a season of waiting walking through the wilderness or standing at the edge of a burning bush moment this devotional will help you Discern God's voice in everyday life Recognize patterns and divine confirmations Return to Scripture as his living active word Cultivate stillness obedience and faith This is not a rush to a destination it's an invitation to slow down listen closely and trace God's fingerprints across your story

The Plunder of Black America Calvin Schermerhorn, 2025-02-11 The long history of the racial wealth gap in America told through the stories of seven Black families who struggled to build wealth over multiple generations Wealth is central to the American pursuit of happiness and is an overriding measure of well being Yet wealth is conspicuously absent from African American households Why do some 3.5 million Black American families have zero or negative wealth Historian Calvin Schermerhorn traces four hundred years of Black dispossession and decapitalization what Frederick Douglass called plunder through the stories of families who have strived to earn and keep the fruits of their toils Their struggles reveal that the ever evolving strategies to strip Black income and wealth have been critical to sustaining a structure of racialized disadvantage These accounts also tell of the quiet heroism of those who worked to overcome obstacles and defy the plunder

From the story of Anthony and Mary Johnson abducted from Angola and brought to Virginia in 1619 to the enslaved Black workers dispossessed by the Custis Washington family to Venture Smith born Brotheer Furro who purchased his freedom to three generations of a family enslaved in the South who moved north after Emancipation to the Tulsa massacre and the subprime lending crisis Schermerhorn shows that we cannot reckon with today's racial wealth inequality without understanding its unrelenting role in American history

The Concept of Justice in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik, Georges Tamer, 2025-06-30 The concept of justice is a fundamental tenet of Judaism Christianity and Islam exerting a profound influence on their respective theological ethical and social perspectives The pursuit of a just world is a central concern of these religions with a particular emphasis on human responsibility compassion and mercy This book presents a comprehensive overview of the understanding of justice in each one of the three religions elucidating the similarities and differences between them Each chapter provides perspectives on justice in the respective holy scriptures as well as key classical and traditional views on the topics of divine human relations and social and political justice issues Additionally modern interpretations are presented including the tension between freedom and religious duties and responsibilities of individuals and among societies Given the paucity of literature on this topic this book offers a rare and essential contribution to understanding justice in the context of the monotheistic faiths

Assembling the Archipelago: Heritage in Energy Transitions and Climate Action Marilena Mela, 2025-09-09 This book explores the potential of heritage to enact sustainable human environment relationships across geographical differences It does so by travelling to four archipelagoes the Wadden Islands in the Netherlands the Cyclades in Greece Shetland in Scotland and the Aeolian Islands in Italy In the face of planetary socioenvironmental crises the reliance on sustainable development strategies including the energy transition on technocratic top down solutions fail to counterbalance global agendas of extraction and growth and address environmental injustices in peripheral places This book stresses the need to think small arguing that seeds for meaningful change exist in such places and the geographically and historically situated relationships between people and environments Islands interconnected yet autonomous places with unique histories are good places to start In four archipelagoes frictions produced both by climate change and climate mitigation the fragile consensus around a solar park in the Wadden Sea conflicts around wind turbine towers in the Aegean experiments with the tides in Shetland and volcanic episodes in the Aeolian come in dialogue with the learning potential of their environmental and cultural heritage The counterposing of these stories renegotiates established discourses of heritage and sustainability and the associated courses of action in policy and planning This contribution will resonate with academics students policymakers and activists in heritage studies environmental humanities landscape studies science and technology studies and sustainability Readers are invited to participate in the life and troubles of four island landscapes and to think along on emergent archipelagic claims towards sustainable and just futures

THE LAST SUPPER 01 Trinh The Vien, 2025-08-13 THE LAST SUPPER 01 Fan

Shen opened his eyelids with great difficulty looking at his fingertips to count the things he had done in his life the result was that nothing was meaningful After a while of looking at his five thin fingers like five chopsticks and counting he sighed sadly giving up this job The medicine in the hospital room always had such a pungent smell looking at the empty beds on both sides the old man who had been lying here two days ago had already passed away it would probably be his turn in a few days He had some strange disease the symptoms of powerlessness especially similar to the disease of the main character in a certain novel It was said that one day he would be unable to move all he could do was let his tears flow down
