Multinationals Clusters And Innovation Does Public Policy Matter:

Multinationals, Clusters and Innovation A. Tavares,A. Teixeira,2006-07-11 Countries adopt policies that attract foreign multinationals stimulate industrial clustering and foster innovation This book links these topical issues examining activities of multinational enterprises alongside the efficiency appropriateness and sufficiency of such policies With new empirical evidence it makes practical proposals throughout The Competitive Advantage of Regions and Nations Boris Ricken,George Malcotsis,2016-03-23 The importance of technology transfer for the competitive advantage of companies and the economic success of nations cannot be overstated Technology is a determining element for firms and nations to increase productivity to compete and to prosper In The Competitive Advantage of Regions and Nations the authors stress that companies investment promotion agencies and government bodies cannot simply sit and wait until new technologies arrive in their domain Rather they need to manage the identification assessment attraction absorption and application of new technologies In this comprehensive book Boris Ricken and George Malcotsis explain how technology transfer in Foreign Direct Investment FDI projects can be systematically managed Using some 40 case studies as illustration they give step by step guidance for managers The explanation of theory in this book together with the frameworks and cases delivering solutions to the various challenges of technology transfer will be highly appreciated by managers of companies investment promotion agencies and government bodies alike It also offers students confronted with the topic an understandable study guide Entrepreneurship in the Global Firm Alain Verbeke,Ana Teresa Tavares Lehmann,Rob van Tulder,2011-10-20 Provides the research insights from the international business field on entrepreneurship in the global firm This collection offers a comprehensive perspective on the wide variety of conceptual and managerial issues that arise as a result of entrepreneurial action in firms operating in the global economy The New Geography of Innovation Xavier Tinguely,2013-11-19 Innovation is the main engine of competitiveness However in a world in which everything goes faster the inherent nature of the innovation process has changed This book assesses both the theoretically and empirically intertwined relationship between innovation clusters and multinational enterprises in today s economy The Strategic Development of Multinationals M. Papanastassiou,R. Pearce,2009-10-21 The chapters in this book provide detailed analyses of a range of issues that feed into an overview of the strategic development of the MNE over the past 40 years This modeled as the evolution of the MNE from a multidomestic hierarchy to a network hierarchy to the contemporary strategic diversity of the heterarchy The extensive range of empirical and conceptual analysis covers the strategic roles and competitive evolution of subsidiaries the positioning of R how MNEs R the ways in which dispersed subsidiaries and labs now work to support both the effective use of current competitive technologies and the generation of new sources of competitiveness for global firms An underlying theme of the book that is also developed conceptually is how the global operations of MNEs involve selective involvement with national economies and the implications of this for globalization and economic development

Globalizing Innovation Patrick J.W. Egan, 2018-01-12 The impact of host country institutions and policy on innovation by multinational firms in emerging economies In the past multinational firms have looked to developing countries as sources of raw materials markets or production efficiencies but rarely as locations for innovation Today however Egan finds host country institutions and the configuration of the host country's investment policies have a strong impact on firm decisions and evolving country investment profiles Egan uses econometric analysis to identify determinants of multinational innovation and examines differences among state institutions as a key variable He then offers a detailed case study assessing Ireland's attempts to use foreign direct investment in innovation as a catalyst for development While FDI is a potential vehicle for industrial upgrading Egan cautions it is neither necessary nor sufficient for development Furthermore innovation intensive investments are not likely to develop linkages with local actors or otherwise embed themselves in host economies in the absence of active discriminating policies channeled through coherent and coordinated institutions

Small and Medium-sized Enterprises and the Global Economy Gerald I. Susman, 2007-01-01 Globalization has jarred the traditional role and competitiveness of small and medium sized enterprises This masterful volume comprises leading scholars policy makers and business leaders who have new insights and strategies for SMEs creating opportunities rather than being victims of globalization The result is a breakthrough in our understanding of entrepreneurship in the global context David B Audretsch Indiana University Bloomington US and WHU Germany Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs often have difficulty competing in the global economy unless they collaborate with domestic or foreign partners or with public sector organizations This book addresses the resource leverage and innovation challenges that increased global trade represents for SMEs In doing so it explores how SMEs can become more competitive at home and in foreign markets as stand alone firms or as members of supplier and customer networks SMEs are turning increasingly to innovation as a source of competitive advantage in order to protect their home markets and participate in expanding foreign markets The contributors to this volume leading experts in entrepreneurship innovation and international business provide in depth coverage of the most compelling issues facing SMEs These include innovation as a competitive strategy network dynamics ways to leverage technology internationalization and the role of the public sector in helping SMEs to overcome resource deficiencies This comprehensive look at SMEs in the global marketplace will be of great interest to academics who study entrepreneurship innovation or international business officials from public sector agencies with responsibility for helping SMEs to internationalize and become more innovative and senior executives of SMEs or executives of larger companies who are considering collaboration with SMEs

Competitiveness of the ASEAN Countries Philippe Gugler, Julien Chaisse, 2010-01-01 In an age in which it is increasingly necessary for nations to consider their competitiveness and at a time when the world economy is facing recession this book explores the possible trajectory of ASEAN arguably one of the most dynamic areas in the world as a regional economic and political bloc This important and timely study focuses on the role of foreign direct investment in advancing the performance of ASEAN and the competitiveness of its firms whereas other studies typically focus solely on the role of trade The expert contributors an interdisciplinary assembly of economists lawyers and political scientists present a comprehensive view of ASEAN s experiences over the past decade addressing the industrial competitiveness of ASEAN and analysing the role of MNEs against the background of the challenges of integration They illustrate that regional integration will only be a success if ASEAN s linkages are broadened with global partners through negotiations of Free Trade Agreements The book concludes that although much still remains to be done and many promises are still to be unveiled ASEAN s coming of age is an historic milestone Competitiveness of the ASEAN Countries will appeal to a broad readership including students academics and researchers with an interest in Asian studies international business international economics and international law Encyclopedia of International Strategic Management Christian G.

Innovation, Growth and Competitiveness Peter Nijkamp, Julia Siedschlag, 2010-12-01 This book investigates dynamic regions in the context of greater global interaction in a world economy increasingly driven by knowledge and innovation. It offers novel empirical evidence on the underlying factors of the growth performance of these spaces. In particular the following questions are addressed: What role is there for research education and innovation in the development strategies of the dynamic growth regions? What are the risks and consequences of dynamic growth on patterns of world growth and development competitiveness inequalities and convergence? What development strategies should be promoted at national and international levels to promote a growing and more sustainable world economy? What are the implications of the emerging new competitors for Europe's competitiveness? Using an innovative integrated framework of analysis the contributions in this book combine a wide array of complex theoretical and methodological approaches.
