Mumbai Mirror:

Infrastructural Lives Stephen Graham, Colin McFarlane, 2014-10-10 Infrastructural Lives is the first book to describe the everyday experience and politics of urban infrastructures. It focuses on a range of infrastructures in both the global South and North. The book examines how day to day experience and perception of infrastructure provides a new and powerful lens to view urban sustainability politics, economics, cultures, and ecologies. An interdisciplinary group of leading and emerging urban researchers examine critical questions about urban infrastructure in different global contexts. The chapters address water, sanitation, and waste politics in Mumbai, Kampala, and Tyneside; analyse the use of infrastructure in the dispossession of Palestinian communities; explore the pacification of Rio's favelas in the run up to the 2014 World Cup; describe how people's bodies and lives effectively operate as infrastructure in many major cities; and also explores tentative experiments with low carbon infrastructures. These diverse cases and perspectives are connected by a shared sense of infrastructure not just as a thing, a system, or an output, but as a complex social and technological process that enables or disables particular kinds of action in the city. Infrastructural Lives is crucial reading for academics, researchers, students, and practitioners in urban studies globally.

Mumbai / Bombay Sujata Patel, D. Parthasarathy, George Jose, 2022-06-16 Mumbai Bombay is a quintessential urban expression which represents the questions and puzzles related to Indian urbanity. This book traces the various ways through which majoritarianism and neoliberal capitalist accumulation has reorganised Bombay or Mumbai in India. The book assesses Mumbai's present trajectories and processes as being embedded in its recent past. It looks at these changes by exploring work and labour, health and education, spatial planning, and infrastructural development, politics, and identity, and shows how financialisation, land speculation, deregulation, and informality have impacted the city's culture and everyday living. The contributors to this volume analyse the consequences of these changes for women and men across ages as they live their material and cultural lives; evaluate the role of the changing nature of work, urban infrastructure, and planning; determine its outcome for public health and education; and take a measure of its manifestation in the field of arts and culture. The volume explores the processes that reorient these changes, the socio-spatial and political implications of these on the inhabitants of the city, and the resistance and response to marginalisation. This interdisciplinary volume will interest students and researchers of economics, sociology, anthropology, political science, public policy, development studies, and urban studies. It will also be useful to urban practitioners, planners, bureaucrats, activists, and general readers.

Gandhi-Mody, 2020-12-01 IN OCTOBER 2019 THE ASSEMBLY elections held in Maharashtra saw a decisive mandate in favour of the pre poll Mahayuti alliance of the Bharatiya Janata Party and the Shiv Sena against the Maha Aghadi alliance of the Nationalist Congress Party and the Indian National Congress But what followed shook the very foundations of democracy With the Shiv Sena unexpectedly staking claim to the chief minister's post and the BJP unwilling to give in to their demand the battle for the coveted top spot began in earnest and President's Rule was imposed in the state Featuring swiftly shifting alliances the abandonment of long held party ideologies dynastic bombast and overnight reversals the high octane drama culminated in Uddhav Thackeray of the Shiv Sena taking oath as chief minister of Maharashtra on 28 November 2019 The BJP the single largest party in the legislature with almost double the seats of the second in line Shiv Sena found itself sidelined and left without power Recounting in dramatic detail the high stakes battle for political control of a crucial state Trading Power throws into sharp focus the manipulations and narrow motivations that rule politics in the country today ultimately leading to a gross betrayal of the people's mandate
