Čeginskas, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, Nina Sääskilahti, 2021-11-29 This book provides novel and critical insights into the complex relationship between politics of memory and oblivion in European countries in the 20th and early 21st centuries as well as the cultural political and institutional backgrounds against which they function It explores the uses of the past in terms of a conscious choice to either reactivate or overlook memories as selective reference points for the promotion and legitimation of contemporary political goals The chapters of this volume bring together theoretical discussions on the interrelationship between remembrance and purposeful oblivion as active processes that serve particular interests and ideologies in the present By addressing the diverse meanings given to practices of memory the contributions offer new perspectives on how institutions shape cultural memory power relations and identity projects Politics of Memory and Oblivion in the European Context Critical Perspectives will be of interest to scholars and graduate students from the fields of memory studies heritage studies cultural studies history and political science who engage with the legacies of violent and traumatic pasts post colonial contexts societal transition and reconciliation The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal European Politics and Society

Collecting China Jan van Campen, 2022-03-14 During a relatively short period from around 1765 to 1780 the Dutch lawyer Jean Theodore Royer 1737 1807 was intensely engaged in the study of Chinese culture Befriended VOC officials and their Chinese relations in Canton collected Chinese objects for him and helped him with his greatest ambition the composition of a Chinese dictionary The objects were given a home in his museum on the Herengracht in The Hague Better than travel journals they gave a picture of life in China in Royer s time Because the selection was largely made by modest Chinese traders the collection does not so much give a picture of the material culture of the Chinese elite but rather that of the ambitious upwardly mobile world of small traders and craftsmen These are mostly ephemeral objects that have rarely been preserved but they came to The Hague thanks to Royer and his Chinese contacts A bequest from his widow then ensured that the collection ended up in two Dutch museums Museum Volkenkunde in Leiden and the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam where the objects are still present today

Denial: The Final Stage of Genocide? John Cox, Amal Khoury, Sarah Minslow, 2021-09-21 Genocide denial not only abuses history and insults the victims but paves the way for future atrocities Yet few if any books have offered a comparative overview and analysis of this problem Denial The Final Stage of Genocide is a resource for understanding and countering denial Denial spans a broad geographic and thematic range in its explorations of varied forms of denial which is embedded in each stage of genocide Ranging far beyond the most well known cases of denial this book offers original pathbreaking arguments and contributions regarding competition over commemoration and public memory in Ukraine and elsewhere transitional justice in post conflict societies global violence against transgender people which genocide scholars have not adequately confronted music as a means to recapture history and combat denial public education s role in erasing Indigenous history and promoting settler colonial ideology in the United States triumphalism as a new variant of denial following the Bosnian Genocide denial vis vis Rwanda and neighboring Congo DRC With contributions from leading genocide experts as well as emerging scholars this book will be of interest to scholars and students of history genocide studies anthropology political science international law gender studies and human rights
