

Contract with Church Music Director

Contract made on the _____ day of _____, 20____, between

(Name of Music Director) of _____ (Street Address)

(City, County, State, Zip Code), hereinafter called the Music Director, and

(Name of Church) a nonprofit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of _____, with its principal office located at _____ (Street Address, City, County, State, Zip Code)

referred to herein as Church.

For and in consideration of the mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

1. Church hereby employs Music Director, and Music Director accepts such employment, to act as the Church's Music Director subject to all the terms and conditions below.
2. Services. Music Director duties shall include:
 - A. Conducting the Church's regular weekly rehearsals evening from _____ to _____;
(Time) and all additional rehearsals, including dress rehearsals, to prepare the chorus for its regular performance season. The precise number of regular rehearsals and performances for _____ are set
(Year) forth on Exhibit A attached to this Agreement.
 - B. Conducting the season repertoire performances, including any out-of-town or special performances of the season repertory but not including extra work, e.g., paid orchestral jobs, weddings, caroling, charity work, and the like. However, Music Director may miss two scheduled rehearsals without loss of pay; thereafter the Board in its discretion may deduct a pro-rated portion of Music Director's compensation, especially if a substitute has to be brought in.
 - C. Auditioning candidates for membership and re-auditioning the existing singing membership as Music Director deems appropriate and necessary.
 - D. Preparing the chorus for any outside jobs selected by the Board of

Musician Contract For Church:

Practical Church Management James Behrens, 2008 The Musician, 1920 Church Economist, 1903 Music, Medicine and Religion at the Ospedale Di Santo Spirito in Rome Naomi J. Barker, 2024

Explores the use of music as therapy and shows how it operated in the hospital's institutional, social, and historical contexts undergoing change in response to broader cultural and religious movements. This book explores connections between the physical care of the sick based on the study of medicine, concepts of healing founded on religious thought, and the practice of music at the Ospedale di Santo Spirito Hospital of the Holy Spirit in Rome. The hospital was a unique institution that was regulated by the Roman Catholic Church but simultaneously reflected the significant shifts in scientific thought emerging during the period that coincided with post-Tridentine reforms in the church. The volume discusses the hospital's foundation, architecture, and links with the papacy. It also reflects on the then acceptable ways of knowing informed by religious concerns and medical traditions. The tripartite relationship between religion, medicine, and music within the institution was complex. At times they existed side by side; at others, they intersected. Drawing on extensive archival research, such as financial records, decrees, records of apostolic visits, and inventories, as well as surviving musical sources, printed and manuscript, the book makes connections between intellectual beliefs about music and actual musical practices. It explores the early use of music as therapy and investigates the musical ideals and practices of the monastic regime which ran the hospital. In a wider sense, the book shows how music operated in the hospital's institutional, social, and historical contexts and how it underwent change over time in response to broader cultural and religious movements.

Excellence in Worship Darrelle R. Alexander, 2006-07-27

Church musicians' compensation obfuscates many religious people. One commentator of a nationally syndicated religious radio program stated that from all the religious questions, none is as controversial as "Should church musicians should be paid?" Darrell Alexander resolves the answer through fundamental Bible texts. If you are a church musician, minister of music, soloist, instrumentalist, choir member, church member, trustee, finance committee member, music workshop organizer, teacher, music workshop presenter, praise team member, interested in becoming a church musician, choir president, organist, pianist, choir director, chorister, church board member, deaconess, pastor, asst. pastor, deacon, professor, a bishop, a priest, a member of the leadership system for your congregation, denomination, and/or any religious organization, students of Theology, Music, Worship, and Praise, Sacred Music, or just have a curiosity about whether church musicians should be compensated, then this book is a MUST READ for you. Darrell Alexander, the author, discusses the foundations of the creation of the world, Lucifer, and the war in Heaven, the Levites' tithes and offerings, and ways to bridge the gap between ministers, musicians, choir members, administrations, and leadership systems of churches and religious denominations. How do we differentiate between who is compensated in the church or not compensated? The author prays that Excellence in Worship: Should Church Musicians Be Paid? helps to transform any assumptions, ideations, paradigms, and traditions within churches.

and denominations and their leaders and members concerning the subject so that we all may continue to strive for excellence in worship to God Every church and its members and officials should have a copy in their library Excellence in Worship Should Church Musicians Be Paid is straight talk concerning music excellence in worship tithes offerings and the church
