Muslim Cultures Today Kathryn M. Coughlin, 2006-05-30 There is strong demand for current accurate and objective information about Islamic societies and Muslims around the world This is the first survey for a general audience of key current topics in 16 countries with significant Muslim populations Each chapter covering a country contains the following narrative elements Overview statistics demographics of followers brief history of their life there Political Impact Women s Status Special Issues in the News Notable People biographical profiles and Resource Guide with Suggested Reading Films Videos Websites and Organizations The content ties in to World History standards to help analyze connections between globalizing trends in culture in the late 20th century and dynamic assertions of traditional cultural identity and distinctiveness as well as to the Global Connections part of Social Studies standards This will be essential reading for those desiring a one volume resource about hot spots in the news today Countries profiled include Afghanistan Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Egypt Ethiopia India Indonesia Iran Iraq Nigeria Pakistan Russia Saudi Arabia Sudan Turkey and Uzbekistan Photos and maps help to put the narrative in perspective Humanism and Muslim Culture Stefan Reichmuth, Jörn Rüsen, Aladdin Sarhan, 2012-03-07 The papers of this volume move from the abstract scheme of an intercultural humanism of the future to concrete cultural expressions of humanism within the Muslim culture of different times up to the present They concentrate on three issues The first is related to contemporary attempts to develop a humanist and historical hermeneutics of the Qur an and of Islamic history The second discusses the humanist heritage and the humanitarian trends of Muslim religious and literary culture The third highlights the discussion on Humanism and Islam as a topic within European identity politics covering the role of this discussion for the history of Islamic Studies in Europe and America and the contemporary polemics around Islam in the Netherlands Taken together the contributions of the volume attempt to provide the groundwork for an assessment of the roots and prospects of an intercultural humanism with respect to the Muslim world Mappila Muslim Culture Roland E. Miller, 2015-04-27 This book provides a comprehensive account of the distinct culture of the Mappila Muslims a large community from the southern Indian state of Kerala Although they were the first Muslim community in South Asia the Mappilas are little known in the West Roland E Miller explores the Mappilas fourteen century long history of social adaptation and their current status as a successful example of Muslim interaction with modernity Once feared now admired Kerala s Mappilas have produced an intellectual renaissance and renewed their ancient status as a model of social harmony Miller provides an account of Mappila history and looks at the formation of Mappila culture which has developed through the interaction of Islamic and Malayali influences Descriptions of current day life cycles religion ritual work life education and leadership are included Latino and Muslim in America Harold D. Morales, 2018-02-01 Latino and Muslim in America examines how so called minority groups are made fragmented and struggle for recognition The U S is poised to become the first nation whose collective minorities outnumber the dominant population and Latinos play no small

role in this world changing demographic shift Even as many people view Latinos and Muslims as growing threats Latino Muslims celebrate their intersecting identities in their daily lives and in their mediated representations In this book Harold D Morales follows the lives of several Latino Muslim leaders from the 1970 s to the present tracing their efforts to organize and unify nationally in order to solidify the new identity group s place within the public sphere Drawing on four years of media analysis ethnographic and historical research Morales demonstrates that Latinos embrace Islam within historically specific contexts that include distinctive immigration patterns and new laws urban spaces and media technologies that have increasingly brought Latinos and Muslims into contact He positions this growing community as part of the mass exodus out of the Catholic Church the growth of Islam and the digitization of religion Latino and Muslim in America explores the interactions between religion race and media to conclude that these three categories are inextricably entwined

Cosmopolitan Sexualities Ken Plummer,2016-09-26 How are we to live with the wide varieties of sexuality and gender found across the rapidly changing global order Whilst some countries have legislated in favour of same sex marriage and the United Nations makes declarations about gender and sexual equality many countries across the world employ punitive responses to such differences In this compelling and original study Ken Plummer argues the need for a practical utopian project of hope that he calls cosmopolitan sexualities He asks how can we connect our differences with collective values our uniqueness with multiple group belonging our sexual and gendered individualities with a broader common humanity Showing how a foundation for this new ethics politics and imagination are evolving across the world he discusses the many possible pitfalls being encountered He highlights the complexity of sexual and gender cultures the ubiquity of human conflict the difficulties of dialogue and the problems with finding any common ground for our humanity Cosmopolitan Sexualities takes a bold critical humanist view and argues the need for positive norms to guide us into the future Highlighting the vulnerability of the human being Plummer goes in search of historically grounded and potentially global human values like empathy and sympathy care and kindness dignity and rights human flourishing and social justice These harbour visions of what is acceptable and unacceptable in the sexual and intimate life Clearly written the book speaks to important issues of our time and will interest all those who are struggling to finding ways to live together well in spite of our different genders and sexualities

Practicing Islam in

Today's China United States. Congressional-Executive Commission on China, 2004 The Politics of Muslim Cultural Reform
Adeeb Khalid, 1999-01-01 Adeeb Khalid offers the first extended examination of cultural debates in Central Asia during Russian rule With the Russian conquest in the 1860s and 1870s the region came into contact with modernity The Jadids influential Muslim intellectuals sought to safeguard the indigenous Islamic culture by adapting it to the modern state Through education literacy use of the press and by maintaining close ties with Islamic intellectuals from the Ottoman empire to India the Jadids established a place for their traditions not only within the changing culture of their own land but also within the larger modern Islamic world Khalid uses previously untapped literary sources from Uzbek and Tajik as well as archival materials from Uzbekistan Russia Britain and France to explore Russia's role as a colonial power and the politics of Islamic reform movements He shows how Jadid efforts paralleled developments elsewhere in the world and at the same time provides a social history of the Jadid movement By including a comparative study of Muslim societies examining indigenous intellectual life under colonialism and investigating how knowledge was disseminated in the early modern period The Politics of Muslim Cultural Reform does much to remedy the dearth of scholarship on this important period Interest in Central Asia is growing as a result of the breakup of the former Soviet Union and Khalid's book will make an important contribution to current debates over political and cultural autonomy in the region Muslim Devotional Art in India Yousuf Saeed, 2018-10-26 This book highlights the history of Islamic popular devotional art and visual culture in 20th century India weaving the personal narrative of the author's journey through his understanding of the faith It begins with an introductory exploration of how the basic and universal image of Mecca and Medina may have been imported into Indian popular print culture and what variants it resulted in here Besides providing a historical context of the pre print culture of popular Muslim visuality the book also explores the impact the 1947 Partition of India may have made on the calendar art in South Asia A significant portion of the book focuses on the contemporary prints of different localised images found in India and what role these play in the users lives especially in the augmentation of their popular faith and cultural practices The volume also compares the images published in India with some of those available in Pakistan to reflect different socio political trajectories Finally it discusses why such a vibrant visual culture continues to thrive among South Asian Muslims despite the questions raised by the orthodoxy on its legitimacy in Islam and why images and popular visual cultures are inevitable for popular piety despite the orthodox Muslims increasing dissociation from them This work is one of the first books on Indian Muslim poster art with rare images and simple narratives anecdotes about rituals ceremonies and cultural traditions running parallel to research findings This second edition contains a new Afterword that discusses challenges to religious plurality arising on account of changing political landscapes economic liberalisation technology and new media and socio religious developments It will appeal to the lay reader as well as the specialist and will be especially useful to researchers and scholars in popular culture media and cultural studies visual art and performance studies and sociology and social anthropology Religious

Islam Between Culture and Politics B. Tibi,2001-11-07 Bassam Tibi offers a radical solution to the problems faced by Islam in a rapidly changing and globalizing world He proposes a depoliticization of the faith and the introduction of reforms to embrace secular democracy pluralism civil society and individual human rights The alternative to this is the impasse of fundamentalism The pivotal argument is that Islam is being torn between the pressure for cultural innovation and a defensive move towards the politicization of its symbols for non religious ends
