Muslim Minority State Relations Violence Integration And Policy The Modern Muslim World:

Muslim Minority-State Relations Robert Mason,2016-04-08 This volume explores the dominant types of relationships between Muslim minorities and states in different parts of the world the challenges each side faces and the cases and reasons for exemplary integration religious tolerance and freedom of expression By bringing together diverse case studies from Europe Africa and Asia this book offers insight into the nature of state engagement with Muslim communities and Muslim community responses towards the state in turn This collection offers readers the opportunity to learn more about what drives government policy on Muslim minority communities Muslim community policies and responses in turn and where common ground lies in building religious tolerance greater community cohesion and enhancing Muslim community state relations

Muslim Minority-State Relations Robert Mason,2016 Digital Islamophobia Emily Lynell Edwards,2023-10-24 The rise of far right communities on digital platforms is a global crisis Digital Islamophobia tracks far right groups where they are a virtual and vicious threat exploring how these networks grow develop and circulate Islamophobic hate speech on Twitter Reconstructing this media ecosystem Digital Islamophobia traces the reactionary political ideologies animating these groups through feminist data analytic techniques in a transnational study of German and American far right digitally networked users This work illustrates far right communities using data visualization techniques identifies a taxonomy of user types analyzes themes and stories that motivate far right users and tracks the spread of linked forms of anti Muslim sentiment reactionary ideologies and mis information In doing so Digital Islamophobia details how far right discourse is not merely national or even transatlantic but increasingly transnationalized among American German as well as Indian and Nigerian digital networks By tracking and tracing the contours of these far right digital communities on Twitter and analyzing the content of their conversations Digital Islamophobia provides policy makers researchers and scholars with a potential road map to stop them

Resignification of Borders: Eurasianism and the Russian World Nina Friess,Konstantin Kaminskij,2019-08-23 Eurasianism has proved to be an unexpectedly diverse and highly self reflexive concept By transforming the way we describe the Eurasian landmass it also resignifies our field of studies and its disciplinary boundaries In this process Eurasianism itself is subject to a constant resignification The present volume builds on this notion while pursuing an innovative approach to Eurasianism The authors advance the well established positions that view Eurasianism as a historical intellectual movement or as an ideology of Russian neo Imperialism and proceed to unpack an innovative vision of Eurasianism as a process of renegotiating cultural values and identity narratives in and beyond Russia This procedural approach provides deeper insight into the operationality of the identity narratives and shifting semantics of Eurasianism in its relation to the Russian World

Qur'an Translations in the Eastern Bloc and Beyond Elvira Kulieva,Johanna Pink,Mykhaylo Yakubovych,2025-05-21 This book offers the first comprehensive exploration of Qur an translations across the diverse landscapes of the former Eastern Bloc from Uzbekistan to the German Democratic Republic

With a focus on how Islamic texts have been shaped by state policies ideological shifts and religious identities it traces connections between these regions and the wider world including Saudi Arabia Turkey and China This volume draws on perspectives from both Sunni and Shia traditions as well as contributions by non Muslim scholars Through archival research and close textual analysis the contributors demonstrate how translations of the Qur'an have served not only as religious texts but also as reflections of profound transformations in national and religious identities in communist and post communist societies Qur'an translations have gained prominence within the modern Muslim publishing world and their analysis reveals a dynamic interplay between local politics and global Islamic discourse They have become symbols of religious resurgence cultural renewal and intellectual exchange but also objects of persecution and contestation Based on multilingual sources this collection is an essential resource for understanding Qur'an translations as a significant scholarly and cultural phenomenon in the modern era Shari'a and the Constitution in Contemporary Legal Models Federico Lorenzo

Ramaoli,2024-03-23 This comparative law book aims at formulating a new analytical approach to constitutional comparisons assuming as a starting point the different legal perspectives implied in the Sunni Islamic outlook on the juridical phenomena and the Western concept of law with particular reference to constitutionalism The volume adopts a wider and comprehensive viewpoint comparing the different ways in which the Islamic shar'a and Western legal categories interact regardless of substantive contents of specific provisions thus avoiding conceptual biases that can sometime affect present literature on the matter The book explores the various dynamics subtended to the interactions between shar'a and Western constitutionalism providing a new classification to the different contemporary models The philosophical and legal comparisons are analyzed in a dynamic way based on a wide range of contemporary constitutional systems virtually encompassing all the States in which Sunni Islam plays a major cultural role and taking also into consideration non State actors and non recognized actors Published in cooperation with gLAWcal Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development Hornchurch Essex United Kingdom Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Sri Lanka Kanchana N. Ruwanpura,Amjad Mohamed Saleem,2024-07-18

Islam in Post-communist Eastern Europe

Egdūnas Račius, 2020-05-18 In Islam in Post communist Eastern Europe Between Churchification and Securitization Egdūnas Račius reveals how not only the governance of religions but also practical politics in post communist Eastern Europe are permeated by the strategies of churchification and securitization of Islam Though most Muslims and the majority of researchers of Islam hold to the view that there may not be church in Islam material evidence suggests that the representative Muslim religious organizations in many Eastern European countries have been effectively turned into ecclesiastical bureaucratic institutions akin to nothing less than national Muslim Churches As such these national Muslim Churches themselves take an active part in securitization advanced by both non Muslim political and social actors of certain forms of Islamic religiosity

Imagining Bosnian Muslims in Central Europe František Šítek, 2021-01-14 As a Slavic speaking religious and ethnic Other living just a stone's throw from the symbolic heart of the continent the Muslims of Bosnia and Herzegovina have long occupied a liminal space in the European imagination To a significant degree the wider representations and perceptions of this population can be traced to the reports of Central European and especially Habsburg diplomats scholars journalists tourists and other observers in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This volume assembles contributions from historians anthropologists political scientists and literary scholars to examine the political social and discursive dimensions of Bosnian Muslims encounters with the West since the nineteenth century debates on decolonising museums or the resurgence of nationalist sentiments Islam and Heritage in Europe discusses specific articulations of belonging and non belonging and the ways in which they create new avenues for re thinking Islam and heritage in Europe This ensures that the book will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of heritage museums Islam Europe anthropology archaeology and art history The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution ShareAlike 4.0 International see also <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>

Faith-Based Organizations and Social Welfare
Miguel Glatzer, Paul Christopher Manuel, 2020-08-18 This volume seeks to understand the role and function of religious based organizations in strengthening associational life through the provision of social services thereby legitimizing a new role for faith in the formerly secular public sphere Specifically we explore how a church in a postcommunist setting during periods of economic growth and recession in the wake of transitions to capitalism and with varied numbers of adherents might contribute to welfare services in a new political regime with freedom of religion Put another way what new pressures would be placed on the secular welfare state if religious organizations Orthodox Catholic Protestant Muslim others simply stopped offering their services By examining public perceptions of the church changing dynamics of religiosity and church state civil society relations the volume places these issues in context

The Spectre of Islamic Terrorism: Comparative Insights
Hussein Solomon, 2024-11-15 This book presents the result of an innovative challenge to create a systematic literature overview driven by machine generated content Questions and related keywords were prepared for the machine to query discover collate and structure by Artificial Intelligence AI clustering The AI based approach seemed especially suitable to provide an innovative perspective as the topics are indeed both complex interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary for example climate planetary and evolution sciences Springer Nature has published much on these topics in its journals over the years so the challenge was for the machine to identify the most relevant content and present it in a structured way that the reader would find useful The automatically generated literature summaries in this book are intended as a springboard to further discoverability They are particularly useful to readers with limited time looking to learn more about the subject quickly and especially if they are new to the topics Springer Nature seeks to support anyone who needs a fast and effective start in their content discovery journey from the undergraduate student exploring interdisciplinary content to Master or PhD thesis developing research questions to the practitioner seeking support materials this book can serve as an inspiration to name a few examples It is important to us as a publisher to make the advances in technology easily accessible to our authors and find new ways of AI based author services that allow human machine interaction to generate readable usable collated research content

Governing Islam in France and Russia Hakan Erdagöz, Politicizing Islam in Austria Farid Hafez, Reinhard Heinisch, 2024-03-29 Among its Continental peers Austria has stood out for its longstanding state recognition of the Muslim community as early as 1912 A shift has occurred more recently however as populist far right voices within the Austrian government have redirected public discourse and put into question Islam's previously accepted autonomous status within the country Politicizing Islam in Austria examines this anti Muslim swerve in Austrian politics through a comprehensive analysis of government policies and regulations as well as party and public discourses In their innovative study Hafez and Heinisch show how the far right Austrian Freedom Party FP adapted anti Muslim discourse to their political purposes and how that discourse was then appropriated by the conservative center right Austrian People's Party VP This reconfiguration of the political landscape prepared the way for a right wing coalition government between conservatives and far right actors that would subsequently institutionalize anti Muslim political demands and change the shape of the civic conditions and public perceptions of Islam and the Muslim community in the republic

Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood Eric Stollenwerk, 2023-11-01 How can effective and legitimate governance be ensured where state institutions are weak This is a key question for domestic and international politics One answer to this question that has received considerable attention in political science but also among development agencies and international organizations is virtuous circles of governance In such circles effective and legitimate governance are thought to be mutually reinforcing The idea is that more effective governance leads to more legitimacy and more legitimacy to more effectiveness in governance In many parts of the world however state institutions are weak and citizens perceive governance as ineffective and governance actors lack legitimacy This places a large question mark behind the idea of virtuous circles of governance Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood asks How likely are virtuous circles of governance to evolve in areas of limited statehood The central claim of this book is that virtuous circles of governance are possible in areas of limited statehood but more likely to evolve for external and non state actors than for the state The state is often part of the governance problem rather than the solution Based on a new theoretical model for the interplay between effective and legitimate governance the study provides in depth empirical evidence for its argument by drawing on innovative qualitative and quantitative data The case studies of Sub Saharan Africa Nigeria and Afghanistan underline the key argument by considering state external and non state actors The book offers conceptual innovations new empirical evidence and policy recommendations of how to ensure effective and legitimate governance in areas of limited statehood
