Muslim Women's Political Participation in France and Belgium Amina Easat-Daas, 2020-10-03 This book outlines the principal motivations opportunities and barriers to Muslim women's political participation in France and francophone Belgium Easat Daas draws on in depth comparative contextual analysis along with semi structured interview material with women from France and Belgium who self identify as Muslim and are active in a variety of modes of political participation such European Parliamentarians Senators councilwomen trade union activists and those engaged in grass roots political movements This provides an alternative framing of Muslim women removed from the tired and often exaggerated stereotypes that portray them as passive objects or sources of threat instead highlighting their remarkable resilience and consistent determination Through exploring the intersecting fault lines of racial Islamophobic and gendered struggles of Muslim women in these two cases this book also sheds new light on the role of European Islam political opportunity structures secularism and Muslim women's dress

Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace, 2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies

Muslim Community Organizations in the West Mario Peucker, Rauf Ceylan, 2017-04-07 The book focusses on the historical emergence and contemporary challenges of Muslim community organizations and their struggle for recognition as ordinary voices in multiethnic and multi religious civil societies of Western democracies It offers a range of different perspectives on how Muslim communities position themselves and navigate the social and political landscape shaped by on the one hand normalization of ethno religious diversity and on the other ongoing misrecognition and essentialisation of Muslims in the West The contributions from internationally

Islam and Politics Peter Mandaville,2014-06-20 This book is an accessible and comprehensive account of political Islam in the twenty first century Drawing on insights from comparative politics and Islamic studies it explains the complex interaction between Islam society the state and processes of globalization The book demonstrates that political Islam far from being a monolithic phenomenon varies considerably from country to country depending on its position in relation to society the state and the broader political environment The book provides a portrait of Islam and politics through a combination of detailed case studies and country overviews that span the globe from the Middle East to Central and South Asia Southeast Asia and Europe and North America as well as a detailed account of the global jihadist movement Engaging the debate on post Islamism and the aftermath of Arab Uprisings the book also provides a roadmap of possible futures for Islam and politics Subjects covered include history of Islam and politics and an overview of key concepts how political Islam interacts with the nation state and the global economy a wide variety of global case studies profiles of key movements and individuals Fully illustrated throughout featuring maps a glossary and suggestions for further reading this is the ideal introduction to the crucial role of political Islam in the contemporary world Religion and Civil Society in Europe Joep de Hart,Paul Dekker,Loek Halman,2013-07-15 Religion is back again in Europe after never having been gone It is manifest in the revival of religious institutions and traditions in former communist countries in political controversies about the relationship between the church es and the state and about the freedom of religion and the freedom to criticize religion and in public unease about religious minorities This book is about religion and civil society in Europe It moves from general theoretical and normative approaches of this relationship via the examination of national patterns of religion state relations to in depth analyses of the impact of religion and secularization on the values pro social attitudes and civic engagement of individuals It covers Europe from the Lutheran North to the Catholic South and from the secularized West to the Orthodox East and Islamic South East with comparative analyses and country studies concluding with an overall Europe USA comparison Muslims in Ireland Oliver Scharbrodt, 2015-03-20 This book combines historical sociological and ethnographic research methods to provide a rich and multi faceted study of the Muslim presence in Ireland in its historical and contemporary dimensions European Islam Samir Amghar, Amel Boubekur, Michael Emerson, 2007 This book analyzes the place of the new Muslim minorities in society within the European Union The authors explore the root causes of rising tensions and conflict between the new immigrant population and native Europeans over issues of Muslim identity Islamist doctrines and Islamophobia They also provide integration models for the various EU countries and discuss the short and long range problems caused by socioeconomic discrimination against Muslims Contributors include Imane Karich International Crisis Group Brussels Isabelle Rigoni Paris VIII University Sara Silvestri Cambridge University and City University London Valeria Amiraux European University Institute Florence Chris Allen University of Birmingham UK Tufyal Choudhury Durham University UK and Bernard Godard Ministry of Interior Paris Muslim Citizens in the West Samina Yasmeen, Nina Markovic, 2016-04-29 Drawing upon original case studies spanning North America Europe and Australia Muslim Citizens in the West explores how Muslims have been both the excluded and the excluders within the wider societies in which they live The book extends debates on the inclusion and exclusion of Muslim minorities beyond ideas of marginalisation to show that while there have undoubtedly been increased incidences of Islamophobia since September 2001 some Muslim groups have played their own part in separating themselves from the wider society The cases examined show how these tendencies span geographical ethnic and gender divides and can be encouraged by a combination of international and national developments prompting some groups to identify wider society as the other Muslim and non Muslim scholars and practitioners in political science social work history and law also highlight positive outcomes in terms of Muslim activism with relationship to their respective countries and suggest ways in which increasing tensions felt perceived or assumed can be eased and greater emphasis given to the role Muslims can play in shaping their place in the wider communities where they live

Muslim Political Participation In Europe: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Muslim Political Participation In Europe : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
