Muslim Modernity in Postcolonial Nigeria Ousmane Kane, 2003-01-01 This book deals with Muslim modernity in a country with the largest single Muslim population in Sub Saharan Africa It provides much needed new grounds for comparative study Until now virtually all socio anthropological works about any specific African country are either authored by nationals of that country or by Western scholars This book is an exception because its author is an Islamicist and a social scientist from Senegal trained in the French social science tradition Therefore his work does offer an original perspective in the study of Nigeria In addition the study of Islam south of the Sahara has so far focused on Sufi orders which form the mainstream of Islam but which by no means covers the whole Islamic field socalled Islamic fundamentalist movements are also part of the religious landscape This book is devoted to the study of the largest single Muslim fundamentalist organization in postcolonial Sub Saharan Africa the Society for the Removal of Innovation and Reinstatement of Tradition

Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue Marianne Moyaert, Joris Geldhof, 2015-04-23 Shared ritual practices multi faith celebrations and interreligious prayers are becoming increasingly common in the USA and Europe as more people experience religious diversity first hand While ritual participation can be seen as a powerful expression of interreligious solidarity it also carries with it challenges of a particularly sensitive nature Though celebrating and worshiping together can enhance interreligious relations cross riting may also lead some believers to question whether it is appropriate to engage in the rituals of another faith community Some believers may consider cross ritual participation as inappropriate transgressive behaviour Bringing together leading international contributors and voices from a number of religious traditions Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue delves into the complexities and intricacies of the phenomenon They ask what are the promises and perils of celebrating and praying together What are the limits of ritual participation How can we make sense of feelings of discomfort when entering the sacred space of another faith community The first book to focus on the lived dimensions of interreligious dialogue through ritual participation rather than textual or doctrinal issues this innovative volume opens an entirely new perspective A Dictionary of Islam Thomas Patrick Hughes,1896

The Monotheists: Jews, Christians, and Muslims in Conflict and Competition, Volume II F. E. Peters,2005-08-14 The world's three great monotheistic religions have spent most of their historical careers in conflict or competition with each other And yet in fact they sprung from the same spiritual roots and have been nurtured in the same historical soil This book an extraordinarily comprehensive and approachable comparative introduction to these religions seeks not so much to demonstrate the truth of this thesis as to illustrate it Frank Peters one of the world's foremost experts on the monotheistic faiths takes Judaism Christianity and Islam and after briefly tracing the roots of each places them side by side to show both their similarities and their differences Volume I The Peoples of God tells the story of the foundation and formation of the three monotheistic communities of their visible historical presence Volume II The Words and Will of God is devoted to their inner life the spirit that animates and regulates them Peters takes us to where these religions live their scriptures laws institutions and intentions how each seeks to worship God and achieve salvation and how they deal with their own orthodox and heterodox and with others the goyim the pagans the infidels Throughout he measures but never judges one religion against the other The prose is supple the method rigorous This is a remarkably cohesive informative and accessible narrative reflecting a lifetime of study by a single recognized authority in all three fields The Monotheists is a magisterial comparison for students and general readers as well as scholars of the parties to one of the most troubling issues of today the fierce sometimes productive and often destructive competition among the world's monotheists the siblings called Jews Christians and Muslims
