Muslim Families In Global Senegal Money Takes Care Of Shame:

Muslim Families in Global Senegal Beth Buggenhagen, 2012-02-06 A first rate ethnography of Muslim women in Dakar an extremely fine grained analysis of women s exchange networks Robert Launay Northwestern University Senegalese Murid migrants have circulated cargo and currency through official and unofficial networks in Africa and the world Muslim Families in Global Senegal focuses on trade and the transmission of enduring social value through cloth videos of life cycle rituals and religious offerings Highlighting women s participation in these networks and the financial strategies they rely on Beth Buggenhagen reveals the deep connections between economic profits and ritual and social authority Buggenhagen discovers that these strategies are not responses to a dispersed community in crisis but rather produce new roles wealth and worth for Senegalese women in all parts of the globe A lively insightful and important study of exchange practices between Senegal and a circuit of global trade The innovative focus is on the meanings not the social and economic functions of exchange Karen Tranberg Hansen Northwestern University While the author s focus is on the transformation in the role of women both within the family network and in the marketplace the book allows readers to better understand the impact of globalism on the citizens of Senegal Recommended Choice Africa Maria Grosz-Ngaté, John H. Hanson, Patrick O'Meara, 2021-12-22 Much has changed in Africa and in African studies but one constant has been the enduring excellence of the anthology Africa International Journal of African Historical Studies Since the publication of the first edition in 1977 Africa has established itself as a leading resource for teaching business and scholarship This fourth edition has been completely revised and focuses on the dynamism and diversity of today s Africa The latest volume emphasizes contemporary culture civil and social issues art religion and the political scene and provides an overview of significant themes that bear on Africa s place in the world Historically grounded Africa provides a comprehensive view of the ways that African women and men have constructed their lives and engaged in collective activities at the local national and global levels From all indications the fourth edition of Africa should not only endure the test of time but also be found exceptionally useful by a wide spectrum of scholars including college professors and their students in general Africa Today Cultural Entrepreneurship in Africa Ute Rösenthaller, Dorothea Schulz, 2015-11-19 This book seeks to widen perspectives on entrepreneurship by drawing attention to the diverse and partly new forms of entrepreneurial practice in Africa since the 1990s Contrary to widespread assertions figures of success have been regularly observed in Africa since pre colonial times The contributions account for these historical continuities in entrepreneurship and identify the specifically new political and economic context within which individuals currently probe and invent novel forms of enterprise Based on ethnographically contextualized life stories and case studies of female and male entrepreneurs the volume offers a vivid and multi perspectival account of their strategies visions and ventures in domains as varied as religious proselytism politics tourism media music prostitution funeral organization and education African cultural entrepreneurs have a significant economic impact attract the attention of large groups of people serve as role models for many youths and contribute to the formation of new popular cultures Shi'i Cosmopolitanisms in Africa Mara A. Leichtman, 2015-08-27 Mara A Leichtman offers an in depth study of Shi i Islam in two very different communities in Senegal the well established Lebanese diaspora and Senegalese converts from Sunni to Shi i Islam of recent decades Sharing a minority religious status in a predominantly Sunni Muslim country each group is cosmopolitan in its own way Leichtman provides new insights into the everyday lives of Shi i Muslims in Africa and the dynamics of local and global Islam She explores the influence of Hizbullah and Islamic reformist movements and offers a corrective to prevailing views of Sunni Shi i hostility demonstrating that religious coexistence is possible in a context such as Senegal

The Verbal Art of Mobility in West Africa Nikolas Sweet, 2025-01-24 In recent years migration across urban centers and national borders has radically reshaped West African societies and sparked a global debate on the legal and cultural processes of immigration Along newly constructed international highways in southeastern Senegal young men and women travel between regional centers and their hometowns in the wake of a gold mining boom that has brought new opportunities as well as risks Previous scholarship on migration has often emphasized the movement of bodies and things In The Verbal Art of Mobility in West Africa instead of considering language primarily as a way to describe mobility as it happened author Nikolas Sweet positions language as an essential infrastructure through which individuals forge material connections and communication channels across space and borders This reinterpretation of migration emphasizes that language is a form of social action in its own right one that does not merely reflect experiences in the world but can bring things into being Mobility emerges not only from an individual s given mobile history but also through an attention to the linguistic resources deployed in everyday interactions with others Based on ethnographic research on social interaction verbal creativity and mobility in southeastern Senegal The Verbal Art of Mobility in West Africa reveals how migrants use language to build social networks and mitigate risk amid socioeconomic and environmental precarity

Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

The Oxford Handbook of the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón, 2021 This Handbook provides a multidimensional and interdisciplinary assessment of the West African Sahel region in all of its complexity Contours of Change Bala

Saho, 2018-02-01 Based on a previously unexamined body of qadi court records as well as two hundred oral interviews in Wolof and Mandinka Contours of Change Muslim Courts Women and Islamic Society in Colonial Bathurst the Gambia 1905 1965 offers a new perspective on the impact of British rule in West Africa It focuses on the formation of present day Banjul and the role of law religion and gender relations Specifically this volume explores how colonization affected the evolution of women's understanding of the importance of law in securing their rights and how urban women used the new qadi court system to fight for greater rights in the domestic sphere The fascinating cases discussed in the text show that male Muslim judges often were sympathetic to women's claims and that as a result the qadi court created opportunities for women to acquire property rights and negotiate patriarchal relationships Contours of Change sheds light on African subjectivities and the broader social economic and political changes taking place in colonial Gambian society during the first half of the twentieth century This text breaks new ground in Senegambian history and makes a significant contribution to British colonial studies African legal studies Islam in Africa studies and women's history studies Comparing Conviviality

Tilmann Heil, 2020-03-02 In a world where difference is often seen as a threat or challenge Comparing Conviviality explores how people actually live in diverse societies Based on a long term ethnography of West Africans in both Senegal and Spain this book proposes that conviviality is a commitment to difference across ethnicities languages religions and practices Heil brings together longstanding histories political projects and everyday practices of living with difference With a focus on neighbourhood life in Casamance Senegal and Catalonia Spain two equally complex regions Comparing Conviviality depicts how Senegalese people skillfully negotiate and translate the intricacies of difference and power In these lived African and European worlds conviviality is ever temporary and changing This book offers a textured realist yet hopeful understanding of difference social change power and respect It will be invaluable to students and scholars of African migration and diversity studies across anthropology sociology geography political sciences and law Football (Soccer) in Africa Augustine E.

Ayuk, 2022-04-26 This volume provides an analysis of the history origins and development of football in Africa It brings together an edited assemblage of essays that describe and analyse football in nine African countries including Cameroon DRC Egypt Ghana Kenya Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Uganda from a social science perspective The selection of these countries highlights the three major foreign languages and powers that have governed the continent The English the French and Arabic and provides a prism through which to analyze and compare how football developed in the various countries throughout Africa This comparative methodology allow readers to identify similarities and differences in the progression of the game on the continent and by focusing on football an important relic of European colonialism in Africa underscores the continued dependence on and domination of Europeans on the Africans In situating the genesis of the game contributors examine and analyze the history development management and mismanagement by bureaucrats at the political level as well as at various football federations throughout the continent

Relative Distance Leslie Fesenmyer, 2023-07-06 The socio economic and political uncertainties of Kenya in the 1990s jeopardised what many saw as the promises of modernity An increasing number of Kenyans migrated many to Britain a country that felt familiar from Kenyan history Based on extensive fieldwork in Kenya and the United Kingdom Leslie Fesenmyer s work provides a rich historically nuanced study of the kinship dilemmas that underlie transnational migration and explores the dynamic relationship between those who migrate and those who stay behind Challenging a focus on changing modes of economic production push pull factors and globalisation as drivers of familial change she analyses everyday trans national family life Relative Distance shows how quotidian interactions exchanges and practices transform kinship on a local and global scale Through the prism of intergenerational care Fesenmyer reveals that the question of who is responsible for whom is not only a familial matter but is at the heart of relations between individuals societies and states

Senegal Abroad Maya Angela Smith, 2019-03-05 Senegal Abroad explores the fascinating role of language in national transnational postcolonial racial and migrant identities Capturing the experiences of Senegalese in Paris Rome and New York it depicts how they make sense of who they are and how they fit into their communities countries and the larger global Senegalese diaspora Drawing on extensive interviews with a wide range of emigrants as well as people of Senegalese heritage Maya Angela Smith contends that they shape their identity as they purposefully switch between languages and structure their discourse The Senegalese are notable Smith suggests both in their capacity for movement and in their multifaceted approach to language She finds that although the emigrants she interviews express complicated relationships to the multiple languages they speak and the places they inhabit they also convey pleasure in both travel and language Offering a mix of poignant funny reflexive introspective and witty stories they blur the lines between the utility and pleasure of language allowing a more nuanced understanding of why and how Senegalese move

Senegalese Stagecraft Brian Valente-Quinn, 2021-07-15 Senegalese Stagecraft explores the theatrical stage in Senegal as a site of poetic expression political activism and community engagement In their responses to the country s colonial heritage as well as through their innovations on the craft of theater making Senegalese performers have created an array of decolonizing stage spaces that have shaped the country s theater history Their work has also addressed a global audience experimenting with international performance practices while proposing new visions of the role of culture and stagecraft in society Through a study of the innovative work of Senegalese theater makers from the 1930s onward Senegalese Stagecraft explores a wide range of historical contexts and themes including French colonial education cultural

Rogozen-Soltar,2017-02-27 Long viewed as Spain's most Moorish city

Granada is now home to a growing Muslim population of Moroccan migrants and European converts to Islam Mikaela H Rogozen Soltar examines how various residents of Granada mobilize historical narratives about the city's Muslim past in order to navigate tensions surrounding contemporary ethnic and religious pluralism Focusing particular attention on the gendered racial and political dimensions of this new multiculturalism Rogozen Soltar explores how Muslim themed tourism and Islamic cultural institutions coexist with anti Muslim sentiments Civil Society and the Sustainable Development

Goals in Africa Dudziro Nhengu,2025-06-25 This book is a comprehensive and insightful work that explores the vital role of civil society organizations CSOs in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in Africa Featuring contributions from 14 experts in the field this book delves into the complexities of CSO state partnerships the impact of international donors and the challenges faced by CSOs in advancing SDGs in Africa With a focus on gender equality quality education and good health and well being this book offers valuable insights and recommendations for policymakers practitioners and scholars seeking to understand the critical role of CSOs in driving sustainable development in Africa The book covers a range of topics including the role of CSOs in promoting quality education advancing gender equality and improving health outcomes It also examines the challenges faced by CSOs including limited funding restrictive policies and inadequate infrastructure Through case studies and empirical research the contributors provide nuanced analyses of the complex relationships between CSOs governments and international donors A timely and important contribution to the discourse on sustainable development in Africa the book will be of interest to policymakers practitioners and scholars seeking to understand the critical role of CSOs in driving sustainable development in Africa Ethno-erotic Economies George Paul Meiu,2017-10-10 Ethno erotic

Economies explores a fascinating case of tourism focused on sex and culture in coastal Kenya where young men deploy stereotypes of African warriors to help them establish transactional sexual relationships with European women In bars and on beaches young men deliberately cultivate their images as sexually potent African men to attract women sometimes for a night in other cases for long term relationships George Paul Meiu uses his deep familiarity with the communities these men come from to explore the long term effects of markets of ethnic culture and sexuality on a wide range of aspects of life in rural Kenya including kinship ritual gender intimate affection and conceptions of aging What happens to these communities when young men return with such surprising wealth And how do they use it to improve their social standing locally By answering these questions Ethno erotic Economies offers a complex look at how intimacy and ethnicity come together to shape the pathways of global and local trade in the postcolonial world Hope and Uncertainty in Contemporary

African Migration Nauja Kleist, Dorte Thorsen, 2016-11-25 This volume examines the relationship between hope mobility and immobility in African migration Through case studies set within and beyond the continent it demonstrates that hope offers a unique prism for analyzing the social imaginaries and aspirations which underpin migration in situations of uncertainty deepening inequality and delimited access to global circuits of legal mobility The volume takes departure in a mobility paradox that characterizes contemporary migration Whereas people all over the world are exposed to widening sets of meaning of the good life elsewhere an increasing number of people in the Global South have little or no access to authorized modes of international migration This book examines how African migrants respond to this situation Focusing on hope it explores migrants temporal and spatial horizons of expectation and possibility and how these horizons link to mobility practices Such analysis is pertinent as precarious life conditions and increasingly restrictive regimes of mobility characterize the lives of many Africans while migration continues to constitute important livelihood strategies and to be seen as pathways of improvement Whereas involuntary immobility is one consequence another is the emergence and consolidation of new destinations emerging in the Global South The volume examines this development through empirically grounded and theoretically rich case studies in migrants countries of origin zones of transit and in new and established destinations in Europe North America the Middle East Latin America and China It thereby offers an original perspective on linkages between migration hope and immobility ranging from migration aspirations to return

Militarizing Marriage Sarah J. Zimmerman, 2020-07-24 Following tirailleurs s n galais deployments in West Africa Congo Madagascar North Africa Syria Lebanon Vietnam and Algeria from the 1880s to 1962 Militarizing Marriage historicizes how African servicemen advanced conjugal strategies with women at home and abroad Sarah J Zimmerman examines the evolution of women s conjugal relationships with West African colonial soldiers to show how the sexuality gender and exploitation of women were fundamental to the violent colonial expansion and the everyday operation of colonial rule in modern French Empire These conjugal behaviors became military marital traditions that normalized the intimate manifestation of colonial power in social reproduction across the empire Soldiers cross colonial and interracial households formed at the intersection of race and sexuality outside the colonizer colonized binary Militarizing Marriage uses contemporary feminist scholarship on militarism and violence to portray how the subjugation of women was indispensable to military conquest and colonial rule

Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier, 2016-09-08 The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub Saharan Africa Based on twelve case studies Senegal Mali Nigeria Niger Chad Sudan Ethiopia Somalia Kenya Tanzania Zanzibar and the Comoros this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development The book studies the social religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences It also considers jihad minded movements in contemporary Mali northern Nigeria and Somalia and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes areform the text responds to the question of what areform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa Key featuresBiographies of reformist scholars complement the textCase studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of areform in the larger world of IslamAddresses the importance of transnational entanglements and their formative powerFocuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic areform and issues of youth generational change and gender
