My Body His My Body Trilogy:

My Body Given for You Helmut Hoping ,2019 The Eucharist originated at the Last Supper of Jesus with his disciples It is based on the prayer of thanksgiving that Jesus pronounced over the bread and wine at that meal Eucharist means thanksgiving praise and blessing The Church celebrates the Eucharist as a memorial of the death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ which is more than a remembrance of the Last Supper of Jesus with his disciples In the Eucharist the sacrifice of our redemption becomes present sacramentally In the past dogmatic theology has treated the meaning of the Eucharist while disregarding the form of its liturgical celebration whereas liturgical studies have been content with only the latter Yet the two cannot be separated any more than liturgy and dogma or pastoral practice and doctrine can be understood without the other The Church s liturgy is not something external to Christian revelation but rather as Joseph Ratzinger said revelation accepted in faith and prayer In this work Helmut Hoping combines the approaches of dogmatic theology and liturgy while examining the Eucharist from a historical and systematic perspective This new English translation of the second German edition of this major work revised and expanded includes a comparative analysis of the Second Eucharistic Prayer and a chapter on the theology of the words of institution Harriet's Legacies Ronald Cummings,Natalee Caple,2022-05-15

Historic freedom fighter and conductor of the Underground Railroad Harriet Tubman risked her life to ferry enslaved people from America to freedom in Canada Her legacy instigates and orients this exploration of the history of Black lives and the future of collective struggle in Canada Harriet s Legacies recuperates the significance of Tubman s time in Canada as more than just an interlude in her American narrative it is a new point from which to think about Black diasporic mobilities possibilities and histories Through essays and creative works this collection articulates new territory for Tubman in relation to the Black Atlantic archive connecting her legacies of survival freedom and cultural expression within a transnational framework Contributors take up the question of legacy in ways that remap discourses of genealogy and belonging positioning Tubman as an important part of today s freedom struggles Integrating scholarship with creative and curatorial practices the volume expands conversations about culture and expression in African Canadian life across art literature performance politics and public pedagogy Considering questions of culture community and futures Harriet s Legacies explores what happened in the wake of Tubman s legacy and situates Canada as a key part of that dialogue Wonders - Machines, My

Buddhist Deborah Hay,2013-09-01 Through a series of imaginative approaches to movement and performance choreographer Deborah Hay presents a profound reflection on the ephemeral nature of the self and the body as the locus of artistic consciousness Using the same uniquely playful poetics of her revolutionary choreography she delivers one of the most revealing accounts of what art creation entails and the ways in which the body the center of our aesthetic knowledge of the world can be regarded as our most informed teacher My Body The Buddhist becomes a way into Hay s choreographic techniques a gloss on her philosophy of the body which shares much with Buddhism and an extraordinary artist s primer The book is composed of nineteen short chapters my body likes to rest my body finds energy in surrender my body is bored by answers each an example of what Susan Foster calls Hay s daily attentiveness to the body s articulateness Inventing circuit Grace soon earned the title of Queen of the Gay Discos But with the dawn of the 80s came a massive anti disco movement across the US leading Grace to focus on experimental based work and put her two and a half octave voice to good use It was also around this time that she changed her look to suit the times with a detached androgynous image In this first ever memoir Grace gives an exclusive look into the transformation to her signature style and discusses how she expanded her musical triumph to success in the acting world beginning in the 1984 fantasy action film Conan the Destroyer alongside Arnold Schwarzenegger then the James Bond movie A View to a Kill and later in Eddie Murphy s Boomerang Featuring sixteen pages of stunning full color photographs Miss Grace Jones takes us on a journey from Grace s religious upbringing in Jamaica to her heyday in Paris and New York in the 70s and 80s all the way to present day London in what promises to be a no holds barred tell all for the ages

Paul Ricoeur Charles E. Reagan,1998-06-22 Reagan combines different genres to supplement and enhance the central biographical essay A personal memoir recalls the turbulent student protests of the 1960s and Ricoeur s controversial resignation as head of the faculties at the University of Paris Nanterre A penetrating philosophical exposition draws together the essential themes of Ricoeur s philosophical anthropology And a collection of four substantive interviews offers privileged access to Ricoeur s own remarkably clear explication of his most challenging and stimulating ideas The result of this innovative mix of genres is a multidimensional and astonishingly perceptive portrait of a seminal philosopher s life and work

Aa is for Aesthetic (RLE Edu K) Peter Abbs,2012-05-16 This volume reaffirms the indispensable place of the arts in any coherent curriculum The author hopes that the specific arguments formulated in the book will advance the conservationist post Modernist aesthetic

A Year in the Life of a "Dead" Woman Lynnette Porter,2019-10-08 Perhaps I should have realized that cancer runs in my family After all three grandparents and my father and brother perished from this disease Yet when I received my colorectal cancer diagnosis I was surprised I never expected to be primarily identified as a cancer patient Following a typical combination of chemotherapy radiation surgery and more chemo I was presumably cancer free when my post treatment scans looked clean Nonetheless within a year I received a terminal diagnosis cancer had metastasized in my lungs Thus began my year as a dead woman a time of chaotic emotions new priorities and rapid fire plans and changes Expecting the unexpected became a theme in my life but the things that turned out to be most shocking are social familial and even my expectations about what is realistic for a dead woman to be or do Preconceptions about a terminal cancer diagnosis frequently are based on popular culture depictions of cancer and dying which can be misleading as a guide for knowing what to expect when you re expecting to die This memoir provides one woman s often irreverent pop culture illustrated guide to life that deconstructs some common preconceptions about living with a terminal diagnosis

Apocalyptic Chic Barbara Brodman,James E. Doan,2017-10-10 This book deals with legends and images of the apocalypse and post apocalypse in film and graphic arts literature and lore from early to modern times and from peoples and cultures around the world It reflects an increasingly popular leitmotif in literature and visual arts of the 21st century humanity's fear of extinction and its quest for survival in revenant supernatural or living human form. It is the logical continuation of a series of collected essays examining the origins and evolution of myths and legends of the supernatural in Western and non-Western tradition and popular culture. The first two volumes of the series The Universal Vampire: Origins and Evolution of a Legend (Fairleigh Dickinson University Press, 2013) and Images of the Modern Vampire: The Hip and the Atavistic (Fairleigh Dickinson University Press, 2013) focused on the vampire legend. The third, The Supernatural Revamped: From Timeworn Legends to Twenty-First Century Chic (2016), focused on a range of supernatural beings in literature, film, and other forms of popular culture.

From the Grave Cynthia Reeg, 2016-10-18. A monster is as a monster does, but Frankenstein's Frankenstein is more concerned with keeping tidy than scaring victims. A new law puts Frank and other misfit monsters on notice, forcing Frank to prove if he is truly monster enough.

In the Shadow of Men Nadia Harhash, 2024-05-31. Born in Jerusalem in the early 1970s and growing up there, the main character in this gripping novel felt all along that something was unsettling that came with being a female living in a society dominated by a patriarchal social order. But it would take a broken marriage that ended in a bitter divorce experience for her to examine anew her early life experiences and understand them as outcomes largely shaped by male dominance; hence the excellent choice of title. Surely male dominance is not projected as completely defining or foreclosing choices available to women. If it did, the main character would not have considered divorce much less acted on it as she eventually did. But the patriarchy almost always shaped experiences and outcomes in ways that reflected the influence of the crippling power asymmetries women tended to be confronted with in male-dominated organizations and social structures. Harhash provides a brilliant account of a wide variety of forms of injustice endured by women living in men's shadow. The breadth of her knowledge as well as her deep intellect render that account at once striking and unsurprising. She does this very well, often seeking explanations deeply rooted in philosophical discourse on human behavior and the evolution of human thought throughout history. Nor did she fail to highlight even if only in passing the variety of ways in which living under an oppressive colonial occupation magnified the ill effects of the power asymmetries associated with the workings of the patriarchal social order.

What Is Extinction? Joshua Schuster, 2023-02-21. WINNER 25th ANNUAL SUSANNE M. GLASSCOCK BOOK PRIZE. Life on Earth is facing a mass extinction event of our own making. Human activity is changing the biology and the meaning of extinction. What Is Extinction? examines several key moments that have come to define the terms of extinction over the past two centuries, exploring instances of animal and human finitude and the cultural forms used to document and interpret these events. Offering a critical theory for the critically endangered, Joshua Schuster proposes that different discourses of limits and lastness appear in specific extinction events over time as a response to changing attitudes toward species frailty. Understanding these extinction events also involves examining what happens when the conceptual and cultural forms used to account for species finitude are pressed to their limits as well. Schuster provides close readings of several case studies of extinction that bring together environmental humanities and multispecies methods with media specific analyses at the terminus of life What Is Extinction delves into the development of last animal photography the anthropological and psychoanalytic fascination with human origins and ends the invention of new literary genres of last fictions the rise of new extreme biopolitics in the Third Reich that attempted to change the meaning of extinction and the current pursuit of de extinction technologies Schuster offers timely interpretations of how definitions and visions of extinction have changed in the past and continue to change in the present To Die of Not Writing Pablo Irizar,Donald Boyce,Martin Koci,2025-08-12 This collection by academics from

Fictions Joshua Landy,2012-08-03 Why does Mark s Jesus speak in parables Why does Plato s Socrates make bad arguments Why are Beckett s novels so inscrutable And why don t stage magicians even pretend to summon spirits anymore In a series of captivating chapters on Mark Plato Beckett Mallarm and Chaucer Joshua Landy not only answers these questions but explains why they are worth asking in the first place Witty and approachable How to Do Things with Fictions challenges the widespread assumption that literary texts must be informative or morally improving in order to be of any real benefit It reveals that authors are sometimes best thought of not as entertainers or as educators but as personal trainers of the brain putting their willing readers through exercises designed to fortify specific mental capacities from form giving to equanimity from reason to faith Delivering plenty of surprises along the way that moral readings of literature can be positively dangerous that the parables were deliberately designed to be misunderstood that Plato knowingly sets his main character up for a fall that metaphor is powerfully connected to religious faith that we can sustain our beliefs even when we suspect them to be illusions How to Do Things with Fictions convincingly shows that our best allies in the struggle for more rigorous thinking deeper faith richer experience and greater peace of mind may well be the imaginative writings sitting on our shelves

The Shape of the Soul Paul Marshall,2019-03-18 An essential read for any true seeker Eben Alexander MD Neurosurgeon author of Proof of Heaven and Living in a Mindful Universe When Paul Marshall began to pay attention to his dreams he could not have anticipated the transformative experience that would follow A tremendous expansion of consciousness exposed the insignificance of his everyday self but also revealed unsuspected depths of mind and hinted at a deeper self that holds the universe within In The Shape of the Soul Marshall now a mysticism scholar draws on personal experiences along with a wealth of religious philosophical and scientific ideas to explore this deeper self sometimes experienced in mystical and near death states as spherical in form Drawing inspiration from the philosophers Plotinus and Leibniz Marshall takes mind to be more fundamental than matter and views the basic units of nature as perceptual beings We ourselves are such beings striving for fulfilment in a long evolutionary journey of soul making Bringing together mysticism philosophy biology and even some physics The Shape of the Soul offers a deeply integrated vision of the self and the universe Addressing the mind body problem the origin of the world evolution reincarnation suffering and the nature of God Marshall delivers what will surely prove an intellectual classic

Speaking of Dance Joyce Morgenroth, 2005-07-08 Speaking of Dance Twelve Contemporary Choreographers on Their Craft delves into the choreographic processes of some of America's most engaging and revolutionary dancemakers Based on personal interviews the book's narratives reveal the methods and quests of among others Merce Cunningham Meredith Monk Bill T Jones Trisha Brown and Mark Morris Morgenroth shows how the ideas craft and passion that go into their work have led these choreographers to disrupt known forms and expectations The history of dance in the making is revealed through the stories of these intelligent articulate and witty dance masters

Samuel Beckett and Pain, 2012-01-01 Samuel Beckett and Pain is a collection of ten essays which explores the theme of pain in Beckett's works Experiencing both physical and psychological pain in the course of his life Beckett found suffering in human life inevitable accepted it as a source of inspiration in his writings and probed it to gain deeper insight into the difficult and emotionally demanding processes of artistic creation practice and performance Acknowledging the recent developments in the study of pain in literature and culture this volume explores various aspects of pain in Beckett's works a subject which has been heretofore only sporadically noted The topics discussed include Beckett's aesthetics and pain pain as loss and trauma pain in relation to palliation pain at the experience of the limit pain as archive and pain as part of everyday life and language This volume is characterized by its plural interdisciplinary perspectives covering the fields of literature theatre art philosophy and psychoanalysis By suggesting more diverse paths in Beckett studies the authors hope to make a lasting contribution to contemporary literary studies and other relevant fields
