Munich and National Socialism Winfried Nerdinger, Hans Günter Hockerts, Marita Krauss, Peter Longerich, Mirjana Grdanjski, Markus Eisen, 2015-05-06 1924 Peter Ross Range, 2024-09-24 This biography delves into the fateful year of Hitler's imprisonment in which he wrote the manifesto that would propel him to power. Before his terrible rise to power on the world stage, Adolf Hitler was convicted of treason for organizing the failed Beer Hall Putsch of 1923. He spent much of the following year in prison. This was the time of his final transformation into the self-proclaimed savior and infallible leader who would interpret and distort Germany's historical traditions to support his vision for the Third Reich. Everything that would come—the rallies and riots, the single-minded deployment of a catastrophically evil idea—all of it crystallized in the year 1924. It was a year of deep reading and intensive writing, a year of courtroom speeches and a sensational trial that made him a national figure, a year of working feverishly on the book that became his manifesto, Mein Kampf. In 1924, historian Peter Ross Range explores this single and pivotal period of Hitler's life. He richly depicts the stories and scenes of a year vital to understanding the man and the brutality he wrought in a war that changed the world. Private Life and Privacy in Nazi Germany Elizabeth Harvey, Johannes Hürter, Maiken Umbach, Andreas Wirsching, 2019-07-18 Highlights the surprising ways in which the Nazi regime permitted or even fostered aspirations of privacy. Robert Lowell In Context Thomas Austenfeld, Grzegorz Kość, 2024-04-04 Robert Lowell was one of the most influential American poets of the 20th century. This volume explores the various contexts of Lowell's life and work and evaluates his oeuvre from new perspectives. Individual chapters address his relation to the South, his religious evolution, aspects of his marriages and private life, his bipolar disorder seen through new theories of mental illness, his work as a letter writer and a connoisseur of art and photography. The book also introduces new parameters for a contemporary study of Lowell, commenting on current debates about race and privilege, feminism, ecoconsciousness, his engagement with the natural environment, as well as his friendships with Randall Jarrell and Robert Penn Warren. Writing the History of Emotions Ute Frevert, 2024-02-22 Emotions make history, and they have a history. They influence historical events such as revolutions, riots, and protest movements. At the same time, they are shaped by historical experiences tied to family, upbringing, educational and cultural institutions, work, and the home. Writing the History of Emotions shows how emotions like love, trust, honour, pride, shame, empathy, and greed have impacted historical change since the 18th century and were themselves dependent on social, political, and economic environments. Importantly, this book provides a timely exploration of racialized, gendered, class-based notions of emotions. This exciting addition to Bloomsbury's successful Writing History series analyses how emotions matter in and to history and how they are themselves objects of history. Here, leading scholar Ute Frevert eschews a traditional chronological history of emotions in favour of an innovative collection which transgresses time periods to illustrate the different emotional meanings one particular material object has had throughout history. This book sheds light on how emotions have been used, instrumentalised, and manipulated both to propel and suspend democratic politics In doing so it opens a rich new avenue of research for the history of emotions

Feeling Political Ute Frevert, Kerstin Maria Pahl, Francesco Buscemi, Philipp Nielsen, Agnes Arndt, Michael Amico, Karsten Lichau, Hannah Malone, Julia Wambach, Juliane Brauer, Caroline Moine, 2022-04-07 Historicizing both emotions and politics this open access book argues that the historical work of emotion is most clearly understood in terms of the dynamics of institutionalization This is shown in twelve case studies that focus on decisive moments in European and US history from 1800 until today Each case study clarifies how emotions were central to people s political engagement and its effects The sources range from parliamentary buildings and social movements to images and speeches of presidents from fascist cemeteries to the International Criminal Court Both the timeframe and the geographical focus have been chosen to highlight the increasingly participatory character of nineteenth and twentieth century politics which is inconceivable without the work of emotions Catalogue of the Foreign Office Library, 1926-1968: Subject catalogue Great Britain.
