Peggy didn't bother her with a farewell. She hopped into the Road Runner and drove home encountering two stoplights. Here's an excerpt of Happy Smith playing dominoes with his grandma but he can't concentrate after she asks for a mysterious favor. Once the coffee finished brewing, they moved to Grandma's oak dining table, the chainsaw carved thirty years ago as a wedding anniversary present. Before we play, said Grandma, I hanker a favor. Anything, Happy laughed. Ope, Not anything. Remember when you dared me to shoot a rifle from horseback like the cowboys? I almost broke my neck. Whatever doesn't break you will make you. One of Grandma's favorite sayings and a mantra she drilled into her two boys. A primary reason Uncle Pete and Happy's dad grew into two of the toughest guys in Rosefield. Grandma grabbed an envelope from her purse and slid it across Grandma's table. I need you to deliver this to Peggy. Sure, Happy scratched his head. Uh, which Peggy? Sheriff McStoots your beloved Mary Anne's mother. Hah, Happy flipped the letter over and felt the seal. She licked the glue but he could probably steam it open. What's it about? I'll only tell you if you swear to bring it right to Peggy. No peeking. I swear on the soul of my favorite shotgun. Grandma raised an eyebrow. Okay, okay. Happy contemplated his sweet baby Remi. I swear on the soul of my favorite hunting rifle. Grandma raised her other eyebrow. And this required the ultimate deal. Happy would stay strong. His curiosity wouldn't overpower his love for Remi. If I peek, she's yours. All right, then. Grandma slapped knee. You know Diane Robbittet. She manages Cody's deli. Yepper, she prepares the best sandwich in town, large enough to dislocate your jaw. Well, Diane and I partnered for team cribbage and she learned this from her cousin Florence. You might know him from the Sled. He lives in Stowe. Unrung bells. Doesn't matter. Florence told Diane about an alternative version of cribbage with brand new rules. Grandma giggled and squirmed in her seat. Two cribs. Two. Why don't you tell Peggy at cribbage night. She hasn't attended since the murder investigation began. She's determined to identify the killer by summer. No distractions. A shame. Peggy's my favorite partner when we play team cribbage. You could call her. I hate these new phones worse than computers. Too many buttons and pictures. Besides, I want Peggy to witness the official rules printed out. She's gonna jump right out of her Jeep. Grandma giggled and shook her arms in a happy dance. Happy hadn't seen her this excited since Uncle Pete bought her a new four-wheeler. Why don't you deliver it yourself, then. Because I'm old. I only leave this house to kick your ass on the way out. Or the occasional cribbage night. Just complete the task and no more questions, or I receive your rifle. Happy bit his lip and nodded. Grandma always cut a shrewd but fair deal. Okay. He put the envelope in a pocket. With that deer tied to the grill, shall we proceed to what's important? He reached over to the sill and grabbed the cloth bag. If I remember, I won the last two weeks in a row. Your dementia just turned on. Happy spread the dominoes across the table. You haven't won since they invented electricity. You insult my memory. When you've clearly forgotten how well I crack a belt. They laughed and slapped knee. They chitchatted through three games, addressing every essential topic: snow accumulation, the upcoming sledding season, the Powder Crew's exploits and gossip from cribbage night. Grandma won every match and she bragged about it all the way out of the farmhouse. Come back after you watch one of them YouTube things she called from the porch It s spelled D O M I N O E S Love you Grandma Happy pulled out of the driveway with his head hung He never stood a chance no way he could focus on dominoes with that letter in his pocket What did it really contain Grandma could out lie a lawyer but Happy knew her since he popped out of his Mama The letter didn t involve Deli Diane her cousin or cribbage She needed to send Peggy a message but why not deliver it herself It required all of Happy s willpower not to open the letter on the drive home Whenever he felt his fingers scrape at the seal he considered his dear Remi He couldn t abandon her after all their hunts together After hiking with the Powder Crew Happy forgot all about the letter Nothing like a twelve hundred foot vertical up and down to work the worms out of the hay Well at least until he returned home and noticed the letter on his dining table once more calling to his natural curiosity No he d remain steadfast for Remi s sake He d bring it to Peggy in the morning on his way to work He brought it to his truck at least but Happy forgot to stop as he drove up Left Mountain Road No problem he d drop the letter off after his rental shop shift Except that didn t happen either He had a month before the next Grandma Day He d decide by then what was more important his favorite hunting rifle or discovering his grandmother s secret To celebrate our release on Google Play we re offering Murder on the Mountain at a 50% discount Maybe you should hop on the chair before the trails are skied off

Murder on the Mountain Jim Garvey,2008-07-07 This is a story of two detectives Jim Garber and Dick Taylor who investigate a homicide of an entire family in the small mountain community of Pine Heaven in the Sierra Nevada Mountains The story is set in the time frame of the 1960 s when there were vast areas of Southern California that hadn t fallen under the developer s bulldozer and life seemed just a little more laid back compared with today s hustle and bustle It is a story of intrigue and human doubts and the avenues that these men travel to try and solve this horrendous crime in this small community It deals with the emotions of these two Detectives and how these murders play upon their own feelings when confronting possible suspects to this crime and how they handle events that seem to put their reputations in jeopardy The story goes from the sweltering heat of the valley to the cold and chilling nights in the mountains and all the human faults and failings that go into trying to solve this crime
