Long Form Improvisation and American Comedy M. Fotis, 2014-02-11 Long form scenic improv began with the Harold The comic philosophy of this form started an era of comedy marked by support trust and collaboration This book tells of the Harold beginning with the development of improv theatre through the tensions and evolutions that led to its creation at iO and to its use in contemporary filmmaking Journal of the Fine Arts and Musical World, 1853 Making It Up Together Leslie A. Tilley, 2020-04-03 Most studies of musical improvisation focus on individual musicians But that is not the whole story From jazz to flamenco Shona mbira to Javanese gamelan improvised practices thrive on group creativity relying on the close interaction of multiple simultaneously improvising performers In Making It Up Together Leslie A Tilley explores the practice of collective musical improvisation cross culturally making a case for placing collectivity at the center of improvisation discourse and advocating ethnographically informed music analysis as a powerful tool for investigating improvisational processes Through two contrasting Balinese case studies of the reyong gong chime's melodic norot practice and the interlocking drumming tradition kendang arja Tilley proposes and tests analytical frameworks for examining collectively improvised performance At the micro level Tilley's analyses offer insight into the note by note decisions of improvising performers at the macro level they illuminate larger musical discursive structural and cultural factors shaping those decisions This multi tiered inquiry reveals that unpacking how performers play and imagine as a collective is crucial to understanding improvisation and demonstrates how music analysis can elucidate these complex musical and interactional relationships Highlighting connections with diverse genres from various music cultures Tilley's examinations of collective improvisation also suggest rich potential for cross genre exploration The surrounding discussions point to larger theories of communication and interaction creativity and cognition that will be of interest to a range of readers from ethnomusicologists and music theorists to cognitive psychologists jazz studies scholars and improvising performers Setting new parameters for the study of improvisation Making It Up Together opens up fresh possibilities for understanding the creative process in music and beyond Sound Curriculum Walter S. Gershon, 2017-06-26 Part of a growing group of works that addresses the burgeoning field of sound studies this book attends not only to theoretical and empirical examinations but also to methodological and philosophical considerations at the intersection of sound and education Gershon theoretically advances the rapidly expanding field of sound studies and simultaneously deepens conceptualizations and educational understandings across the fields of curriculum studies and foundations of education A feature of this work is the novel use of audio files

Composing under the Skin Paul Craenen, 2014-04-29 A revealing study of the physical presence of the musician in musical performance Fingers slipping over guitar strings the tap of a bow against the body of a cello a pianist humming along to the music contemporary composers often work with parasitic non conventional sounds such as these Are they to be perceived as musical elements or do they shift attention to the physical effort of music making contact between a body and an instrument Composer Paul Craenen explores ways in which the musician's body is revealed in musical performance He leads us from Cage Lachenmann Kagel and their contemporaries to a discussion of how today's generation of young composers is writing a body paradigm into composition itself Micro temporal physical gestures and instrumental timbre provide the key to unveiling the physical presence of both a musician and a composing body The author's concept of intercorporeality along with the idea of an alternating linear and non linear relationship of the composing body to time casts new light on the relationship between musicians composers and music consumers
