Muslim Youth Challenges Opportunities And Expectations:

Muslim Youth Mohammed Sidiq Seddon, Fauzia Ahmad, 2011 Many Muslim societies regardless of location are displaying a youth bulge where more than half their populations are under the age of 25 An increasingly globalized western culture is rapidly eroding traditional ideas about society from the family to the state At the same time there is a view that rampant materialism is creating a culture of spiritual emptiness in which demoralization and pessimism easily find root For young Muslims these challenges may be compounded by a growing sense of alienation as they face competing ideologies and divergent lifestyles Muslim youth are often idealized as the future of Islam or stigmatized as rebelling against their parental values and suffering identity crises These experiences can produce both positive and negative reactions from intellectual engagement and increasing spiritual maturity to emotional rejectionism narrow identity politics and violent extremism This book addresses many of the central issues currently facing young Muslims in both localized and globalized contexts through engaging with the work of academics youth work practitioners and those working in non governmental organizations and civic institutions provided by publisher Negotiating Identity and Tradition in Single-faith Religious Education Inkeri Rissanen, 2014 What kinds of process of negotiation are involved in teaching and studying Islam in a modern liberal context How can the common aims attached to liberal religious education in contemporary European multicultural societies be pursued in single faith education This book contributes to the search for legitimate and successful forms of religious education by presenting results from a case study examining Islamic education in Finnish schools Finnish Islamic education in which students study their own religion with aims drawn from the liberal educational paradigm offers a space for negotiating liberal educational values in an Islamic framework and negotiating Islam in its many contexts The findings demonstrate the possibilities as well as challenges in educating for autonomy tolerance and citizenship through religion The book also gives insights into students negotiations on diversity and tolerance that are important for all involved in any form of multicultural education These negotiations bring out distinct challenges in dealing with interreligious intrareligious and cultural differences and demonstrate how different understandings of tolerance in different ideological frameworks can cause confusion among students The results lead to a discussion of the educational needs of Muslim students in contemporary Western societies and the competencies their teachers need Muslim Women Seeking Power, Muslim Youth Seeking Justice Mahmoud Abubaker, Christopher Adam-Bagley, 2019-06-20 This volume explores the two themes of equity in employment for Muslim women and the identity and aspirations of Muslim youth in an age of Islamophobia in Western countries through conceptual and empirical studies of employment discrimination and alienation in the UK and the Netherlands To these accounts are added a worldwide perspective on how women and especially ethnic minority and Muslim women experience and try to overcome ethno religious discrimination in entry to employment The themes of Muslim women and youth struggling to survive are illustrated by accounts of teachers from Gaza who are providing alternative families for children traumatised and orphaned through Israeli attacks The idea of peaceful resistance and Islamic patience in the face of persecution is developed throughout the book and applied in a variety of settings

Under Siege Jasmin Zine,2022-04-05 The 9 11 attacks in the United States the subsequent global war on terror and the proliferation of domestic security policies in Western nations have had a profound impact on the lives of young Muslims whose identities and experiences have been shaped within and against these conditions The millennial generation of Muslim youth has come of age in these turbulent times dealing with the aftermath and backlash associated with these events Under Siege explores the lives of Canadian Muslim youth belonging to the 9 11 generation as they navigate these fraught times of global war and terror While many studies address contemporary manifestations of Islamophobia and anti Muslim racism few have focused on the toll this takes on Muslim communities especially among younger generations Based on in depth interviews with more than 130 young people youth workers and community leaders Jasmin Zine s ethnographic study unpacks the dynamics of Islamophobia as a system of oppression and examines its impact on Canadian Muslim youth Covering topics such as citizenship identity and belonging securitization radicalization campus culture in an age of empire and subaltern Muslim counterpublics and resistance Under Siege provides a unique and comprehensive examination of the complex realities of Muslim youth in a post 9 11 world Twenty years after the 9 11 attacks Zine reveals how the global war on terror and heightened anti Muslim racism have affected a generation of Canadians who were socialized into a world where their faith and identity are under siege

Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid,2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within youth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi,2007 ISESCO ,2008

Muslim Education Quarterly ,1996 Al Jumu'ah ,2003-03 Islamic Horizons ,1997 Samar ,1997 The Perspective of Women's Entrepreneurship in the Age of Globalization Mirjana Radović Marković,2007-08-31 This book offers a wide range of perspectives on women entrepreneurs in countries at differing levels of economic development The author and her contributors provide critical insights that will significantly influence how we view women entrepreneurs throughout the world book cover Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Being and Belonging Katherine Pratt Ewing,2008-06-12 The terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 instantly transformed many ordinary Muslim and Arab Americans into suspected terrorists In the weeks and months following the attacks Muslims in the United States faced a frighteningly altered social climate consisting of heightened surveillance interrogation and harassment In the long run however the backlash has been more complicated In Being and Belonging Katherine Pratt Ewing leads a group of anthropologists sociologists and cultural studies experts in exploring how the events of September 11th have affected the quest for belonging and identity among Muslims in America for better and for worse From Chicago to Detroit to San Francisco Being and Belonging takes readers on an extensive tour of Muslim America inside mosques through high school hallways and along inner city streets Jen nan Ghazal Read compares the experiences of Arab Muslims and Arab Christians in Houston and finds that the events of 9 11 created a cultural wedge dividing Arab Americans along religious lines While Arab Christians highlighted their religious affiliation as a means of distancing themselves from the perceived terrorist sympathies of Islam Muslims quickly found that their religious affiliation served as a barrier rather than a bridge to social and political integration Katherine Pratt Ewing and Marguerite Hoyler document the way South Asian Muslim youth in Raleigh North Carolina actively contested the prevailing notion that one cannot be both Muslim and American by asserting their religious identities more powerfully than they might have before the terrorist acts while still identifying themselves as fully American

Sally Howell and Amaney Jamal distinguish between national and local responses to terrorism In striking contrast to the erosion of civil rights ethnic profiling and surveillance set into motion by the federal government well established Muslim community leaders in Detroit used their influence in law enforcement media and social services to empower the community and protect civil rights Craig Joseph and Barnaby Riedel analyze how an Islamic private school in Chicago responded to both September 11 and the increasing ethnic diversity of its student body by adopting a secular character education program to instruct children in universal values rather than religious doctrine In a series of poignant interviews the school s students articulate a clear understanding that while 9 11 left deep wounds on their community it also created a valuable opportunity to teach the nation about Islam The rich ethnographies in this volume link 9 11 and its effects to the experiences of a group that was struggling to be included in the American mainstream long before that fateful day Many Muslim communities never had a chance to tell their stories after September 11 In Being and Belonging they get that chance Multicultural Approaches in Caring for Children, Youth, and Their Families Neil A. Cohen,Thanh V. Tran,Siyon Y. Rhee,2007 This volume emphasizes the importance of utilizing a pro active strengths based practice strategy in working with multi culturally diverse children youth families organizations and communities MultiCultural Review ,2008 2005, : □□□□□□ □□□□□□
