Muslims And The State In The Post 911 West:

Muslims and the State in the Post-9/11 West Erik Bleich, 2013-09-13 From the terrorist attacks of 9 11 to the assassination of Dutch filmmaker Theo van Gogh to the London transportation bombings dramatic events of recent years have generated security concerns about Muslim communities in the West These have added an additional layer to the tensions surrounding Muslim immigrant integration and have generated heated discussions about how governments should address such challenges This collection assembles leading scholars to address four central themes related to the interactions between Muslims and states in contemporary Europe and North America Its authors investigate the timing of Muslims emergence as a perceived security risk they review the variety of actions undertaken in response to the new concerns they assess the effectiveness of different kinds of policies in managing the security and social challenges that governmental actors observe and they identify relevant Muslim sub groups and their highly divergent views on recent developments This book thus serves as a foundation for understanding an issue of critical importance and as a touchstone for advancing public policy and scholarly debate about Muslim state interactions This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Islam and the West Post 9/11 Theodore Gabriel, Jane Idleman Smith, 2017-10-19 This book offers a chance for greater understanding of the political and religious groups in Islam that have contributed to events pre and post September 11th and clearer insights into Muslim Christian relations today Many books have focused on the events of September 11th but have been primarily journalistic This book draws together both Muslim and non Muslim scholars who have been studying Christian Muslim relations for many years They assess the impact of 9 11 on Islamophobia and antipathy towards Muslims Providing insights into various multi cultural communities whose relations with Islam have been affected the authors look particularly at regions where there are large minority Muslim communities US and UK and large minority non Muslim communities Indonesia and Nigeria Assessing a number of issues impacting upon the teaching of Islam this book allows readers to assess the consequences of the event and develop a more critical understanding of its implications

Muslims in the West After 9/11 Jocelyne Cesari, 2009-12-04 This book is the first systematic attempt to study the situation of European and American Muslims after 9 11 and to present a comprehensive analysis of their religious political and legal situations Since 9 11 and particularly since the Madrid and London bombings of 2004 and 2005 the Muslim presence in Europe and the United States has become a major political concern Many have raised questions regarding potential links between Western Muslims radical Islam and terrorism Whatever the justification of such concerns it is insufficient to address the subject of Muslims in the West from an exclusively counter terrorist perspective Based on empirical studies of Muslims in the US and Western Europe this edited volume posits the situation of Muslim minorities in a broader reflection on the status of liberalism in Western foreign policies It also explores the changes in immigration policies multiculturalism and secularism that have been shaped by the new international context of the war on terror This book will be of great interest to students of Critical Security Studies Islamic Studies Sociology and Political Science in general Jocelyne Cesari is an Associate at Harvard's Center for Middle Eastern Studies and the Center for European Studies teaching at Harvard Divinity School and the Government Department specializing in Islam and the Middle East

Freedom through Submission: Muslim-talk in Contemporary Denmark Johannes Renders, 2021-03-01 In Freedom through Submission Johannes Renders explores Danish Muslim statements on human freedom Within a context where public talk of Islam is largely mediated by an incessant succession of controversies the notion of freedom is weaponized both by and against a growing Muslim community Danish Muslims take issue with liberal associations of the notion with autonomy and choice and seek to reconfigure the public debate that pits freedom against Islam This book brings out a sophisticated and reflective Muslim discourse in which freedom is something individuals must simultaneously exercise surrender and achieve through a cultivated relinquishing of the will to Allah

Western Muslims and Conflicts Abroad Juris Pucpenoks, 2015-12-07 This book explains why reactive conflict spillovers political violence in response to conflicts abroad occur in some migrant background communities in the West Based on survey data statistical datasets more than sixty interviews with Muslim community leaders and activists ethnographic research in London and Detroit and open source data this book develops a theoretical explanation for how both differences in government policies and features of migrant background communities interact to influence the nature of foreign policy focused activism in migrant communities Utilizing rigorous mixed methods case study analysis the author comparatively analyses the reactions of the Pakistani community in London and the Arab Muslim community in Detroit to the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq during the decade following 9/11 Both communities are politically mobilized and active However while London has experienced reactive conflict spillover Detroit has remained largely peaceful The key findings show that with regards to activism in response to foreign policy events Western Muslim communities primarily politically mobilize on the basis of their ethnic divisions Nevertheless one notable exception is the Arab Israeli conflict which is viewed through the Islamic lenses and the common Islamic identity is important in driving mobilization domestically in response to Islamophobia and counterterrorism policies and practices perceived to be discriminatory Certain organizational arrangements involving minority community leaders law enforcement and government officials help to effectively contain excitable youth who may otherwise engage in deviant behavior Overall the following factors contribute to the creation of an environment where reactive conflict spillover is more likely to occur policies allowing immigration of violent radicals poor economic integration without extensive civil society inter group ties the presence of radical groups and connections with radical networks abroad

Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal, Nadine Naber, 2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans

The Media World of ISIS Michael Krona, Rosemary Pennington, 2019-11-01 This anthology explores how ISIS used media and propaganda shedding light on the characteristics mission and tactics of its messaging From efficient instructions on how to kill civilians to horrifying videos of beheadings no terrorist organization has more comprehensively weaponized social media than ISIS Its strategic multiplatformed campaign is so effective that it has ensured global news coverage and inspired hundreds of young people around the world to abandon their lives and their countries to join a foreign war Contributors consider how ISIS s media strategies imitate activist tactics legitimize its self declared caliphate and exploit narratives of suffering and imprisonment as propaganda to inspire followers Using a variety of methods contributors explore the appeal of ISIS to Westerners the worldview made apparent in its doctrine and suggestions for counteracting the organization s approaches Its highly developed targeted and effective media campaign has helped make ISIS one of the most recognized terrorism networks in the world Gaining a comprehensive understanding of its strategies will help combat the new realities of terrorism in the twenty first century

Literature and the War on Terror Sk Sagir Ali, 2023-02-14 This book examines cultural imaginations post 9 11 It explores the idea of a religious community and its multifaceted representations in literature and popular culture The essays in the volume focus on the role of literature film music television shows and other cultural forms in opening up spaces for complex reflections on identities and cultures and how they enable us to rethink the trauma of familiarity post traumatic heterotopias religious extremism and the idea of the neighbour in post 9 11 literary and cultural imagination The volume also probes the intersections of religion popular media televised simulacrum and digital martyrdom in the wake of 9 11 It also probes the simulation of new age media images with reference to the creation and dissemination of martyrs the languages of grief religionisation of terrorism islamophobia religious stereotypes and the reading of comics in writing the terror An essential read the book reclaims and reinterprets the alternative to a Eurocentric Americentric understanding of cultural and geopolitical structures of global designs It will be of great interest to researchers of literature and cultural studies media studies politics film studies and South Asian studies

Da'wa Matthew J. Kuiper, 2021-03-31 In this engaging study Matthew J Kuiper tells the fascinating story of how Islam became a world religion and cultural phenomenon of immense scale astonishing diversity and global impact His starting point is the dramatic upsurge in da wa inviting to Islam or Islamic missionary activism Stereotypes of Muslim Women in the United States Alexis Tan, Anastasia Vishnevskaya, 2022-06-21 This book brings into focus the perception of Muslim women in the United States often overlooked in research literature and common media narratives but at the same time facing increasing hate and aggression based on their religious and gendered identities Guided by data from three original experiments and theories of priming and media effects Alexis Tan and Anastasia Vishnevskaya discuss how stereotypes of Muslim women in the media influence public stereotypes and how public stereotypes direct aggressions towards them This book contributes to existing literature in the field by presenting evidence that both verbal and visual symbols in the media can activate implicit prejudices and that activation can be controlled by people who self identify as social liberals Ultimately Tan and Vishnevskaya suggest both media and intrapersonal interventions to mitigate harmful consequences of prejudice towards Muslim women in the United States Scholars of media studies communication religious studies gender studies and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful

Non-Western responses to terrorism Michael J. Boyle, 2019-01-11 This edited collection surveys how non Western states have responded to the threats of domestic and international terrorism in ways consistent with and reflective of their broad historical political cultural and religious traditions It presents a series of eighteen case studies of counterterrorism theory and practice in the non Western world including countries such as China Japan India Pakistan Egypt and Brazil These case studies written by country experts and drawing on original language sources demonstrate the diversity of counter terrorism theory and practice and illustrate how the world sees and responds to terrorism is different from the way that the United States the United Kingdom and many European governments do This volume the first ever comprehensive account of counter terrorism in the non Western world will be of interest to students scholars students and policymakers responsible for developing counter terrorism policy Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez, 2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security

Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia Terrorism and Counterterrorism Brigitte L Nacos,2015-07-22 Focusing on the phenomenon of terrorism in the post 9 11 era Terrorism and Counterterrorism investigates this form of political violence in an international and American context and in light of new and historical trends In this comprehensive and highly readable text Brigitte Nacos a renowned expert in the field clearly defines terrorism s diverse causes actors and strategies outlines anti and counter terrorist responses and highlights terrorism s relationship with the media and the public Terrorism and Counterterrorism introduces students to the field s main debates and helps them critically assess our understanding of and our strategies for this complex and enduring issue Representing Islam Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir,2020-12-01 How do Muslims who grew up after September 11 balance their love for hip hop with their devotion to Islam How do they live the piety and modesty called for by their faith while celebrating an art form defined in part by overt sexuality violence and profanity In Representing Islam Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir explores the tension between Islam and the global popularity of hip hop including attempts by the hip hop ummah or community to draw from the struggles of African Americans in order to articulate the human rights abuses Muslims face Nasir explores state management of hip hop culture and how Muslim hip hoppers are attempting to Islamize the genre s performance and jargon to bring the music more in line with religious requirements which are perhaps even more fraught for female artists who struggle with who has the right to speak for Muslim women Nasir also investigates the vibrant underground hip hop culture that exists online For fans living in conservative countries social media offers an opportunity to explore and discuss hip hop when more traditional avenues have been closed Representing Islam considers the complex and multifaceted rise of hip hop on a global stage and in doing so asks broader questions about how Islam is represented in this global community Muslims in the Western World Daniel Stockemer,2022-05-23 This book provides an overview of the identity and sense of belonging of Muslims in the Western world By presenting case studies on European countries such as France the Netherlands and the UK as well as the USA and Canada it offers a comparative perspective on how Muslims feel toward and are integrated in their country of residence The respective contributions examine the sense of belonging and identity of Muslims and compare their levels of integration Furthermore they discuss the compatibility of their religious beliefs and values with the political and democratic order of their country of residence and make concrete policy recommendations The book is chiefly intended for scholars of political science and migration studies who are seeking a comparative perspective on the status quo of Muslims integration in the Western world Rethinking Identities in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction A. Kanwal,2015-03-09 This book focuses on the way that notions of home and identity have changed for Muslims as a result of international war on terror rhetoric It uniquely links the post 9 11 stereotyping of Muslims and Islam in the West to the roots of current jihadism and the resurgence of ethnocentrism within the subcontinent and beyond The Diversity of Muslims in the United States Qamar-ul Huda,2006 Encountering the World of Islam
