Resisting Injustice and the Feminist Ethics of Care in the Age of Obama David A.J. Richards,2014-02-05 David A J Richards s Resisting Injustice and The Feminist Ethics of Care in The Age of Obama Suddenly All The Truth Was Coming Out builds on his and Carol Gilligan s The Deepening Darkness to examine the roots of the resistance movements of the 1960s the political psychology behind contemporary conservatism and President Obama s present day appeal as well as the reasons for the reactionary politics against him Richards begins by laying out the basics of the ethics of care and proposing an alternative basis for ethics relationality which is based in convergent findings in infant research neuroscience and evolutionary psychology He critically analyzes patriarchal politics and states that they are rooted in a reactionary psychology that attacks human relationality and ethics From there the book examines the 1960s resistance movements and argues that they were fundamentally oriented around challenging patriarchy Richards asserts that the reactionary politics in America from the 1960s to the present are in service of an American patriarchy threatened by the resistance movements ranging from the 1960s civil rights movements to the present gay rights movement Reactionary politics intend to marginalize and even reverse the ethical achievements accomplished by resistance movements creating in effect a system of patriarchy hiding in democracy Richards consequently argues that Obama s appeal is connected to his challenge to this system of patriarchy and will examine both Obama s appeal and the reactions against him in light of the 2012 presidential election This book positions recent American political development in a broad analysis of the role of patriarchy in human oppression throughout history and argues that a feminist based ethics of care is necessary to form a more humane and inclusive democratic politics

The Care and Feeding of Sailing Crew Lin Pardey,Larry Pardey,2014-06-03 The Care and Feeding of Sailing Crew despite the title is hardly a cookbook rather it s a primer on successful cruising Certainly anyone contemplating or preparing for off shore passages would want to read and then keep this volume aboard A 50 day passage from Japan to Victoria Canada in 1979 provides Lin a base for discussing everything from menus to clothing to choosing a fresh chicken to dealing with port officials to preventing sea sickness to buying liquor abroad as well as the best material for underwear Lin and Larry have been full time cruisers and professional sailors for some 40 plus years it's all that they do. They've learned a lot and a great deal of their wisdom appears in this book where specific situations mix with general guidelines. As a bonus, Lin writes very well. She's able to seamlessly tie one subject to the next in a style that seems like great conversation rather than reading a how-to-do-it text. By structuring the flow of information in and around the process of food preparation while experiencing the joys and travails of a very long passage, she provides the reader with a good cruising tale enhanced with a thousand useful tips. Tips vary from entertaining aboard to coping with money transfers. There are great tips on provisioning in foreign ports as well as a strong suggestion to only go a short distance before anchoring following a farewell party. Excellent chapters will help insure your crew stays healthy and well rested. Others deal with creating an ideal galley. From big ideas to small tips, all are presented logically and with useful illustrations. Learn why credit cards are safer to use than debit cards, how to keep eggs for up to 3 months without refrigeration. How you can determine which engine parts are likely to fail, which plastic material makes the best water jugs, how Lin outsmarted weevils and learned to bake fresh bread. Find out which galley layout works best offshore. Rain water catchers, how to make the best kind. On board trash collection and dealing with black water in boats lacking holding tanks. Which cutlery and dinnerware holds up best. Standing watches, getting rest, and using Dramamine as a sleeping aid. The book covers everything from the value of a little black cocktail party dress to the safety of double sinks. Finally intertwined in the cornucopia of wisdom is meal after nourishing meal, sure to lift the spirits of a weary crew. Those recipes and cooking tips alone make for a book of great value. All the other info is just priceless gravy. This fourth edition of The Care and Feed of Sailing Crew incorporates ideas and information gathered by Lin and Larry during their more recent voyages through the Line Islands and south through the Pacific to New Zealand. The majority of chapters have been expanded to include the most up-to-date information on sources, supplies, and new technology. Additional recipes and cooking ideas for use on cruising boats of all sizes have been added to ensure this valuable reference source continues to be relevant for all sailors who venture away from home, be it for a weekend cruise to nearby islands or a voyage around the world.

Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care Emmanuel Y. Lartey, Hellena Moon, 2020-09-23. This anthology is about caring for all persons as a part of the revolutionary struggle against colonialism in its many forms. In recognition of the varied ways in which different forms of oppression, injustice, and violence in the world today are traceable to the legacy and continuing effects of colonialism, various authors have contributed to the volume from diverse backgrounds, including differing ethnic identities, religious and cultural traditions, gender, and sexual orientations, as well as communal and personal realities. As a postcolonial critique of spiritual care, it highlights the plurality of voices and concerns that have been overlooked or obscured because of the politics of race, religion, sexuality, nationalism, and other structures of power that have shaped what discursive spiritual care entails today. Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care presents voices of practical and pastoral theologians, academics, spiritual care providers, religious leaders, students, and activists working to provide greater intercultural spiritual care and awareness in the areas of healthcare community work and education The volume as such expands the discourse of spiritual care and participates in the ongoing paradigm shifts in the field of pastoral and practical theology Sunrise Self-Care Jade Summers,2024-11-25 Rise and Shine with Sunrise Self Care Discover the transformative magic of mornings In this empowering guide Sunrise Self Care unveils the secrets to crafting a fulfilling morning routine that nurtures your body mind and soul Whether you re a snooze button warrior or a sunrise enthusiast this book is your roadmap to starting each day with intention and vitality Inside You ll Learn The power of morning rituals for productivity and joy Step by step guides to mindfulness movement and meditation Practical tips for building sustainable habits How to design mornings that align with your goals and dreams Wake up to your best self one sunrise at a time Centurion: Before the Smuggler's Court Steven F.
