My Avant Garde Education A Memoir:

My Avant-Garde Education Bernard Cooper, 2015-02-09 A wry and beautifully observed memoir about coming of age in the era of conceptual art Growing up in the suburbs confused about his sexuality about his consumer oriented world about the death of his older brother Bernard Cooper falls in love with Pop art and sets off for the California Institute of the Arts the center of the burgeoning field of conceptual art in this beguiling memoir The most famous and infamous artists of the time drift through the place including Allan Kaprow and John Baldessari not to mention the student who phones the Identi Kit division of the Los Angeles Police Department and has them make a composite drawing of the Mona Lisa My Avant Garde Education is at once an artist's coming of age story and a personal chronicle of the era of conceptual art from a writer of uncommon subtlety and nuance David Ulin Los Angeles Times It is a record of the wonders and follies of a certain era in art history always aware that awakening to art is for a young person inseparable from awakening to the ever shifting nature of the self

A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek, 2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek's narrative begins with the author's childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories

ENDORSEMENTS

Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author's long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors stories in his grandfather's grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing

Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness. Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript. Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek's more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books; it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form. Ed Janak, University of Toledo. Brief Encounters Judith Kitchen, Dinah Lenney, 2015-11-05. The best of short literary memoirs, essays, and reflections, many of which were written expressly for this collection. Also available. The late Judith Kitchen, editor of the perennially popular anthologies Short Takes and In Short, and In Brief, was greatly influential in recognizing and establishing flash creative nonfiction as a form in its own right. In Brief Encounters, she and writer-editor Dinah Lenney expand this vibrant field with nearly eighty new selections, shorts as these sharply focused pieces have come to be known, representing an impressive range of voices, perspectives, sensibilities, and forms. Brief Encounters features the work of the emerging and the established, including Stuart Dybek, Roxanne Gay, Eduardo Galeano, Leslie Jamison, and Julian Barnes, arranged by theme to explore the human condition in ways intimate, idiosyncratic, funny, sad, provocative, lyrical, unflinching. From the rant to the rave, the meditation to the polemic, the confession to the valediction, this collection of shorts, this celebration of true and vivid prose, will enlarge your world.

Virginia Woolf and the Bloomsbury Avant-garde Christine Froula, 2005. Virginia Woolf and the Bloomsbury Avant-Garde traces Woolf's art and thought in dialogue with Bloomsbury, Britain's modern heir to the unfinished Enlightenment project of human rights, democratic self-governance, and world peace. For Bloomsbury, the 1914 civil war exposed barbarity within European civilization, belligerent nationalism, racialized economic imperialism, oppressive class and sex/gender systems, the Versailles Peace, fostered totalitarianism, and led to a second world war. An avant-garde in the struggle against the violence within Bloomsbury contributed richly to interwar debates as liberal democracy, socialism, fascism, and communism contended over Europe's future. From her first novel The Voyage Out to her last Between the Acts, Woolf honed her public voice alongside Bloomsbury contemporaries John Maynard Keynes, Roger Fry, Sigmund Freud, Bertrand Russell, T. S. Eliot, E. M. Forster, Katherine Mansfield, and others. An ambitious analysis of Woolf's major writings in light of the historical conditions to which they respond, this volume illuminates the convergence of aesthetics and politics in post-Enlightenment thought and opens a new chapter in Woolf studies. A Companion to American Literature Susan Belasco, Theresa Strouth Gaul, Linck Johnson, Michael Soto, 2020-04-03. A comprehensive chronological overview of American literature in three scholarly and authoritative volumes. A Companion to American Literature traces the history and development of American literature from its early origins in Native American oral tradition to 21st-century digital literature. This comprehensive three-volume set brings together contributions from a diverse international team of accomplished young scholars and established figures in the field.
