My Beskeie Deel N Outobiografiese Vertelling:

Charismatic Leadership and Social Movements Jan Willem Stutje, 2012-08-15 Much of the writing on charisma focuses on specific traits associated with exceptional leaders a practice that has broadened the concept of charisma to such an extent that it loses its distinctiveness and therefore its utility More particularly the concept's relevance to the study of social movements has not moved beyond generalizations The contributors to this volume renew the debate on charismatic leadership from a historical perspective and seek to illuminate the concept's relevance to the study of social movements The case studies here include such leaders as Mahatma Gandhi the architect of apartheid Daniel F Malan the heroine of the Spanish Civil War Dolores Ibarruri la Pasionaria and Mao Zedong These charismatic leaders were not just professional politicians or administrators but sustained a strong symbiotic relationship with their followers one that stimulated devotion to the leader and created a real group identity

Deep hiStories, 2021-11-22 Deep hiStories represents the first substantial publication on gender and colonialism in Southern Africa in recent years and suggests methodological ways forward for a post apartheid and postcolonial generation of scholars The volume's theorizing which is based on Southern African regional material is certain to impact on international debates on gender debates which have shifted from earlier feminisms towards theorizations which include sexual difference subjectivities colonial and postcolonial discourses and the politics of representation Deep hiStories goes beyond the dichotomies which have largely characterized the discussion of women and gender in Africa and explores alternative models of interpretation such as genealogies of voice These genealogies transcend the conventional binaries of visibility and invisibility speaking and silence Works covering South Africa from the eighteenth to the twentieth century and Zimbabwe Namibia and Cameroon in the twentieth include Colonial readings of Foucault Ideologies of domesticity Torture and testimony of slave women Women as missionary targets Gender and the public sphere Race science and spectacle Male nursing on mines Infanticide insanity and social control Fertility and the postcolonial state Literary reconstructions of the past Gender blending and code switching De colonizing the queer The collection includes diverse research on the body in Southern Africa for the first time It brings new subtleties to the ongoing debates on culture civility and sexuality dealing centrally with constructions of race and whiteness in history and literature It is an important resource for teachers and students of gender and colonial studies

The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa's unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa's literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post apartheid revision of the past In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa's literary history. It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come.

Changing Childhoods in the Cape Colony S. Duff, 2015-05-26 This book opens up histories of childhood and youth in South African historiography. It looks at how childhoods changed during South Africa's industrialisation and traces the ways in which institutions first the Dutch Reformed Church and then the Cape government attempted to shape white childhood to the future benefit of the colony.
