Gardner,2019-07-03 Greg J Gardner brings to life the darkest terror attack America has every faced when a small enclave of Islamic extremists works to bring about the collapse of the American ideal Gripping engrossing and graphic without being grotesque the story follows a small but well trained group of terrorists who attack busy shopping centers and grocery stores during the height of holiday shopping and the busiest day of the year Black Friday From the bloody front line to the CNN news desk and from California to the Oval Office Black Friday details the attack from the moment it begins in the small town of Boone North Carolina Simultaneously in several states jihadist teams open fire on shoppers with semiautomatic weapons killing thousands in minutes As America reels from this attack another begins Hell bent on the destruction of America and willing to give their lives the terrorists will stop at nothing to kill as many innocent people as possible dividing America in the process and turning neighbor against neighbor As race and religious differences threaten to push the country apart the American people must fight to overcome differences and band together to conquer a common enemy While it augurs an effect on the United States more eerie than a prolonged nightmare Black Friday sets forth in convincing detail what a small enclave of Islamic extremists could do to bring about the collapse of the American ideal Indeed in this breakout novel by Greg Gardner a cadre of terrorists brings about a transformation in this country that no one now anticipates And yet Gardner s narrative of unfolding horrors is neither a condemnation of Islam nor anthem to America s virtues It is a play by play through a harrowing month in the tribulation of ordinary people who comprise the bedrock of America during the course of a continuing nationwide atrocity Gripping engrossing and graphic without being grotesque I can argue that Black Friday is precisely what would happen from the White House to the newsrooms across the continent to the back roads around every town when a few dozen well trained well coordinated and determined fanatics do what in their perverse minds God demands of them David A Woodbury author of Tales to Warm Your Mind Ten Whimsically Morbid Short Stories The Clover Street News Fire Wind Yesterday A Tale of Ukraine and Khazaria and Babie Nayms Baby Names Engaged Scholarship and Emancipation Toon van Meijl, Frans Wijsen, 2023-06-26 This collective volume celebrates that 75 years ago the foundation was laid for the Department of Anthropology and Development Studies at Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands The contributions to this volume exemplify the evolution of the academic disciplines of anthropology and development studies at Radboud University in the course of its history Radboud University itself celebrates its centenary in the year 2023 Originally this university was established for the emancipation of the Catholic population in the Netherlands Emancipation continues to be a distinctive feature of the university s policy also of the scholarship as it is conducted in the department of anthropology and development studies As emancipation and engagement are key concepts in the disciplines of anthropology and development studies at Radboud University former and current staff members focus their contributions to this anniversary volume on the various meanings of the concepts of emancipation and engagement in their academic practices They reflect on changes in the meaning of engaged scholarship in their own work especially in relation to emancipatory issues The outcome is a rich variety of contributions centering on the shifting tension between engagement and scholarship in the disciplines of anthropology and development studies Thus they not only exemplify the evolution of these academic disciplines at Radboud University but also offer a topical and innovative perspective on a highly dynamic field Black Friday Garrett Yahn, Jordan Tynes, 2012-05-21 Black Friday 11 25 2011 contains photographic and anecdotal documentation as well as critical writing and prose related to performance and intervention based art works executed on Black Friday last year at the Natick Mall outside of Boston On November 25th 2011 we led eleven zealous artists to New England s second largest shopping center We perpetuated our own sets of expectations Both were shaped by our physical contributions to our surroundings The following pages are filled with those contributions by our reactions to fulfilled and failed expectations PARTICIPATING ARTISTS Erik Benjamins Jessica Borusky Leah Craig Alaina Gurdak Taylor McVay Anthony Montuori Miles Pflanz Nina Prader Chris Soldt Joanna Tam Jordan Tynes Garrett Yahn The Oxford Magazine ,1887 The Lancet ,1850 Visualizing Film History Christian Gosvig Olesen, 2024 Though many archival digital objects were not born digital film archives are now becoming important resources for digital scholarship as a consequence of digitization Moreover with advancements in digital research methods involving video annotation visual analysis and GIS affecting the way we look at archival films material stylistic histories and circulation new research practices are more important than ever Visualizing Film History is an accessible introduction to archive based digital scholarship in film and media studies and beyond With a combined focus on the history of film historiography archiving and recent digital scholarship covering a period from the first wave of film archiving in the early 1900s to recent data art this book proposes ways to work critically with digitized archives and research methods Christian Olesen encourages a shift towards new critical practices in the field with an in depth assessment of and critical approach to doing film historiography with the latest digital tools and digitized archives Olesen argues that if students scholars and archivists are to fully realize the potential of emerging digital tools and methodologies they must critically consider the roles that data analysis visualization interfaces and procedural human machinery interactions play in producing knowledge in current film historical research If we fail to do so we risk losing our ability to critically navigate and renew contemporary research practices and evaluate the results of digital scholarship Wisconsin Alumni Magazine ,1907

Dreamland of Humanists Emily J. Levine,2024-05-31 Deemed by Heinrich Heine a city of merchants where poets go to die Hamburg was an improbable setting for a major intellectual movement Yet it was there at the end of World War I at a new university in this commercial center that a trio of twentieth century pioneers in the humanities emerged Working side by side Aby Warburg Ernst Cassirer and Erwin Panofsky developed new avenues in art history cultural history and philosophy changing the course of cultural and intellectual history in Weimar Germany and throughout the world In Dreamland of Humanists Emily J Levine considers not just these men but the historical significance of the time and place where their ideas took form Shedding light on the origins of their work on the Renaissance and the Enlightenment Levine clarifies the social political and economic pressures faced by German Jewish scholars on the periphery of Germany s intellectual world By examining the role that context plays in our analysis of ideas Levine confirms that great ideas like great intellectuals must come from somewhere Skating Engineers Kurt Stutt,2005 Hockey at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute RPI began on a frozen pond in Cohoes in 1902 and has twice reached the pinnacle of the collegiate game Along the way championship performances and awe inspiring play have made hockey at RPI an institution Starting with the nearly forgotten early years and continuing to the present Skating Engineers Hockey at RPI follows the course of the sport at Rensselaer which emerged as a powerhouse a few short years after the program was resurrected following World War II Highlights include the legendary coach Ned Harkness who led an underdog team to the national title in 1954 the high scoring early 1960s teams that returned to the national stage the powerful mid 1980s squad that won the championship again and the modern era in which the women skate on the same historic field house ice as the men That Black Friday Crash J.
