tragedy strikes and Maxim inherits his family's title, wealth and estates and the responsibility that entails. It's a role he's not prepared for and one he struggles to face. But his biggest challenge is fighting his desire for an unexpected enigmatic young woman who's recently joined his staff. Reti-cent beautiful and musically gifted, she's an alluring mystery possessing little more than a dangerous and troublesome past. As Maxim's longing for her deepens into a passion he's never experienced and dares not name, he's left to wonder just who is Alessia Demachi. And can he protect her from the malevolence that threatens her? The Missus Maxim Trevelyan, reluctant Earl of Trevethick, has pursued the woman he loves to the wilds of Albania. Having fought for and won her, he now has to wed her at the sharp end of a shotgun. But can a reformed rake like Maxim ever make a good husband, or will his own notorious reputation and the scandalous secrets of his aristocratic family destroy his newfound happiness? Alessia Demachi has defied and outwitted kidnappers and traffickers and won the heart of the man she loves, but can she make this marriage work? Confronted by Maxim's lurid past, his forbidding family and the looks and whispers of London's elite, will she ever be seen as Maxim's countess, or will she always be his former cleaner?

Hollywood and China in the Post-postclassical Era Lara Herring, 2024-03-18 This book examines the contemporary relationship between Hollywood and China as case studies that help to define a new era in Hollywood film industry style and economics which is termed the post postclassical period. Centred around a case study of Legendary Entertainment, the analysis shows how the studio adopted and adapted its global strategies in order to gain access to and favour within the Chinese film market and how issues of censorship and financial performance affected the choices they made. Demonstrating Legendary's identity as a post postclassical studio and examining how this plays into its China strategy, this book explores how this particular case and the necessary analysis of wider political economic relations offer a periodisation of the contemporary Hollywood-China relationship. This book will interest students and scholars of media and film studies as well as academics whose research interests include global cinema, Hollywood, Chinese cinema, transnational cinema and film industry studies.
