Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've learned mini meal prepped Granted though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping involves no waste and results in time to do other things outside of the kitchen whether that's planning a diet or a budget When making your meal plan the first question to ask is how many meals you want to eat each day without having to cook each day Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and free more time than they spend in the kitchen With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is important to you then trying something different every day meal prepping is not for you I've generally not seen meal prepping for the family or maybe one other person do a whole family Meal prepping for a whole family would be quite difficult but there are a lot of things that would make it easier if you have a family If food is stored in the refrigerator for a long time it can lose its texture and flavor and the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the taste of your refrigerated meals So the longer the food is in the refrigerator the less acceptable the texture and flavor will be to the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then consult them against your own preferences In general I don't think it's more than a few days worth of food at a time but I find that because of the way food is stored in the refrigerator it's not a good idea to keep food in the refrigerator for more than a few days
