Control of Price Related Terms in Standard Form Contracts Yeşim M. Atamer, Pascal Pichonnaz, 2019-11-19 This book explores various approaches around the world regarding price term control and particularly discusses the effectiveness of two major paths ex ante regulatory and ex post judicial intervention Price control and its limits are issues that affect all liberal market economies as well as more regulated markets For the past several years courts in many different countries have been confronted with the issue of whether and to what extent they should intervene regarding price related terms in standard form contracts especially in the area of consumer contracts Open price clauses flat remunerations price adjustment clauses clauses giving the seller supplier the right to ask for additional payments bundling or partitioning practices etc a variety of price related terms are used to manipulate customers choices often also by exploiting their behavioral biases The result is an unfavorable contract that is later challenged in court However invalidating a given price term in standard forms e g of a banking or utilities contract only has an inter partes effect which means that in thousands if not millions of similar contracts the same clauses continue to be used Effective procedural rules are often lacking Therefore pricing patterns that serve to hide rather than to reveal the real cost of goods and services require special attention on the part of regulators The aim of this book is to determine the various approaches in the world regarding price term control and particularly to discuss the efficiency of both paths ex ante regulatory and ex post judicial intervention Thanks to its broad comparative analysis this book offers a thorough overview of the methods employed in several countries It gathers twenty eight contributions from national rapporteurs and one supra national rapporteur EU to the 2018 IACL Congress held in Fukuoka These are supplemented by a general report presented at the same IACL Congress which includes a comparative analysis of the national and supranational reports The national contributors hail from around the globe including Africa 1 Asia 5 Europe 17 the European Union 1 and the Americas 5

Sweeney,2016-03-03 The Idea of

Home in Law Displacement and Dispossession explores an important set of legal and policy issues surrounding the concepts of home and homelessness taking a growing area of legal scholarship into the new arena of human rights and international law The collection considers the ideas concerning home both in the sense of the dwelling place as a special type of property and territorial claims to homeland which underpin many contemporary legal problems by examining a range of contexts where people are displaced or dispossessed from their homes The essays focusing on dispossession consider themes ranging from mortgage and rent arrears in the UK to responses to the foreclosure crisis in the USA and from eviction for the purposes of economic development in South Africa to the exclusion of asylum seekers from the UK s social housing and welfare provision and within the framework of the European Convention on Human Rights The displacement theme meanwhile examines transnational home issues from the experiences of exiles and refugees in areas of conflict to the impact of the broader context of economic social and cultural rights on attempts to protect housing and home through international law At the heart of each essay the contributors experts from across the fields of law policy and housing rights examine the circumstances in which displacement and dispossession take place and reconsider how law and policy respond to such circumstances with a particular focus on the impact of loss of home for the human person At a time of particular and increasing concern about security of tenure and the role of law and policy in protecting people who are vulnerable to forced eviction The Idea of Home in Law presents a bold opportunity to raise questions about the rights and norms associated with housing and home and to generate new insights for scholarship and for national and international policy debates concerning displacement and dispossession
