Advances in Fig Research and Sustainable Production Moshe A. Flaishman,Uygun Aksoy,2022-05-25 The common fig Ficus carica L is one of the oldest fruits domesticated by humans and is native to southwest Asia and the Mediterranean Figs have been associated with health and prosperity since ancient times They are rich in fibre potassium calcium and iron as well as being an important source of vitamins amino acids and antioxidants In recent years increased consumption has caused fig production to shift to new countries such as Mexico Brazil India and China However fig is a challenging fruit crop to grow It is susceptible to insect pests and diseases as well as injuries from abiotic stress during fruit development and ripening As a delicate fruit it also requires complicated postharvest procedures and climate change presents additional challenges This volume serves as a comprehensive reference for current and future practices of fig production consumption research and innovation and is essential for academic researchers and those involved in research and development in the fig industry

A Glocal Town Nicholas Tatsis,2025-06-30 This book presents a novel theoretical and methodological approach to understanding the emerging glocal realities of sub urban space Beginning with a study of a suburb of Athens it illustrates the dynamic interaction between the local and the global charting a range of radical social changes as this locality adapts itself to processes of globalization Moving beyond the Athenian context it shows how the various traditions of suburban enclaves interact with and confront the impact of external yet pervasive elements of the global ized world for instance through the adoption of events and practices observed in societies across the globe such as Earth Day or International Holocaust Remembrance Day or the use of the global calendar as the polis transforms into a cosmopolis With explorations of this kind A Glocal Town advances a three stage interpretative scheme that enables us to frame glocality more broadly and better understand the global local interaction wherever it occurs As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology geography and urban studies interested in globalization and its interaction with the local in sub urban locales

Digital China: Selling to China Through Cross-Border E-Commerce Ashley Dudarenok, 2019-01-01 China's cross border e commerce market was worth 8.8 trillion yuan transactions in 2018 with 25-34 year olds as the largest user segment making up 48% of China's highly educated CBEC consumers In early 2020 China also approved 24 more cross border e commerce pilot cities and has introduced relaxed foreign exchange regulations in its free trade zones This is an area that China is clearly prioritizing If you've ever thought about expanding your business into China but hesitated this is the book for you There are plenty of cross border e commerce options available without having to set up a branch office or hire a large group of local staff It's a great solution for brands of all sizes Here's an excerpt to give you a taste China is a huge market with great potential It's unique sophisticated hyper competitive and it's not easy to succeed Despite the challenges international brands of all kinds are eager to get access to over 1.4 billion Chinese consumers If you've decided that it's time for your company to take its next big step and dive in the good news is that it's not necessary to set up shop in China to sell your products there E commerce is a way of life in China and by the end of 2019 e commerce sales are forecast by some to expand 27.3% reaching 1.935 trillion USD This represents 36.6% of total retail sales in the country Cross border e commerce can blur geographical borders so we've created this mini book to help marketers better understand major online sales channels for cross border e commerce in 2019 You'll find out about key players to watch and major e commerce shopping festivals We'll dive into information that will empower you to take action and make wise decisions when it comes to your marketing budget Social E commerce and We Commerce Whether it's traditional media opening their own online stores or e commerce sites adding more editorial content and social features both sides are coming closer together in the form of social e commerce It's happening everywhere but it's a trend that's even more advanced in China In the West it's more common to use an e commerce site as the final stop when completing a transaction whereas in China e commerce sites are destinations where you can make new discoveries acquire information socialize with others who can make informed recommendations and communicate with people who share your interests or concerns Social commerce has become very popular in China because customer acquisition costs have increased significantly on traditional platforms like Alibaba and JD.com so brands and platforms are looking for new ways to engage customers It is estimated that by the end of 2022 15% of all e-commerce in China will be social and it will become a major force in online retail sales As more e-commerce outlets start adding a social element to their business model three general categories have emerged 1 Content Sharing Platforms The content sharing model is based on consumers' trust in other consumers influencers key opinion leaders KOLs and key opinion consumers KOCs Brands and retailers cooperate with them to create content that informs potential buyers about their products and attempts to guide their purchasing decisions KOLs and trusted consumers give products credibility and desirability KOCs are a role specific to China and WeChat KOCs are personal accounts listed under someone's name but they're administered by brand employees and WeChat users are aware of this arrangement These accounts publish information content marketing and many also do a wide range of customer relationship management tasks such as handling complaints making product orders handling returns issuing coupons promoting sales and more This role was developed as a workaround on the highly influential WeChat social media platform as it is built for person to person contact so this method is not only functional but also feels more personal and can deliver the immediate action that many Chinese consumers demand It also enables a low cost ad network as advertising rates on WeChat are very high
