The Culture and Communities Mapping Project Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa, 2022-01-01 This book describes three years of work by the Culture and Communities Mapping Project a research project based in Edinburgh that uses maps as an object of study and also a means to facilitate research Taking a self reflexive approach the book draws on a variety of iterative mapping procedures and visual methodologies from online virtual tours to photo elicitation to capture the voices of inhabitants and their distinctive perspectives on the city The book argues that practices of cultural mapping consist of a research field in and of itself and it situates this work in relation to other areas of research and practice including critical cartography cultural geography critical GIS activist mapping and artist maps The book also offers a range of practical approaches towards using print and web based maps to give visibility to spaces traditionally left out of city representations but that are important to the local communities that use them Throughout the authors reflect critically on how through the processes of mapping we create knowledge about space place community and culture

Co-Creativity and Engaged Scholarship Alex Franklin, 2022-01-02 This open access book explores creative and collaborative forms of research praxis within the social sustainability sciences The term co creativity is used in reference to both individual methods and overarching research approaches Supported by a series of in depth examples the edited collection critically reviews the potential of co creative research praxis to nurture just and transformative processes of change Included amongst the individual chapters are first hand accounts of such as militant research strategies and guerrilla narrative decolonial participative approaches appreciative inquiry and care ethics deep mapping photo voice community arts digital participatory mapping creative workshops and living labs The collection considers how through socially inclusive forms of action and reflection such co creative methods can be used to stimulate alternative understandings of why and how things are and how they could be It provides illustrations of and problematizes the use of co creative methods as overtly disruptive interventions in their own right and as a means of enriching the transformative potential of transdisciplinary and more traditional forms of social science research inquiry The positionality of the researcher together with the emotional and embodied dimensions of engaged scholarship are threads which run throughout the book So too does the question of how to communicate sustainability science research in a meaningful way
