Our Bodies Are Selves Philip Hefner, Ann Pederson, Susan Barreto, 2015-08-11 Our Bodies Are Selves is a look at what it means to be human in a world where medical technology and emerging ethical insight force us to rethink the boundaries of humanity spirit and man machine This book gives us a fresh look at how our expanding biological views of ourselves and our shared evolutionary history shows us a picture that may not always illumine who and where we are as Christians Offering up Christian theological views of embodiment the authors give everyday examples of lives of love faith and bodily realities that offer the potential to create new definitions of what it means to be a faith community in an increasingly technological age of medicine

Vidding Francesca Coppa,2022-02-23 Vidding is a well established remix practice where fans edit an existing film music video TV show or other performance and set it to music of their choosing Vids emerged forty years ago as a complicated technological feat involving capturing footage from TV with a VCR and syncing with music and their makers and consumers were almost exclusively women many of them queer women The technological challenges of doing this kind of work in the 1970s and 1980s when vidding began gave rise to a rich culture of collective work as well as conventions of creators who gathered to share new work and new techniques While the rise of personal digital technology eventually democratized the tools vidders use the collective aspect of the culture grew even stronger with the advent of YouTube Vimeo and other channels for sharing work Vidding A History emphasizes vidding as a critical feminist form of fan practice Working outward from interviews VHS liner notes convention programs and mailing list archives Coppa offers a rich history of vidding communities as they evolved from the 1970s through to the present Built with the classroom in mind the open access electronic version of this book includes over one hundred vids and an appendix that includes additional close readings of vids

Producing Queer Youth Lauren S. Berliner,2018-06-14 Producing Queer Youth challenges popular ideas about online media culture as a platform for empowerment cultural transformation and social progress Based on over three years of participant action research with queer teen media makers and textual analysis of hundreds of youth produced videos and popular media campaigns the book unsettles assumptions that having a voice and gaining visibility and recognition necessarily equate to securing rights and resources Instead Berliner offers a nuanced picture of openings that emerge for youth media producers as they negotiate the structures of funding and publicity and manage their identities with digital self representations Examining youth media practices within broader communication history and critical media pedagogy she forwards an approach to media production that re centers the process of making as the site of potential learning and social connection Ultimately she reframes digital media participation as a struggle for rather than in itself evidence of power
