Black Friday Greg J. Gardner, 2019-07-03 Greg J Gardner brings to life the darkest terror attack America has every faced when a small enclave of Islamic extremists works to bring about the collapse of the American ideal Gripping engrossing and graphic without being grotesque the story follows a small but well trained group of terrorists who attack busy shopping centers and grocery stores during the height of holiday shopping and the busiest day of the year Black Friday From the bloody front line to the CNN news desk and from California to the Oval Office Black Friday details the attack from the moment it begins in the small town of Boone North Carolina Simultaneously in several states jihadist teams open fire on shoppers with semiautomatic weapons killing thousands in minutes As America reels from this attack another begins Hell bent on the destruction of America and willing to give their lives the terrorists will stop at nothing to kill as many innocent people as possible dividing America in the process and turning neighbor against neighbor As race and religious differences threaten to push the country apart the American people must fight to overcome differences and band together to conquer a common enemy While it augurs an effect on the United States more eerie than a prolonged nightmare Black Friday sets forth in convincing detail what a small enclave of Islamic extremists could do to bring about the collapse of the American ideal Indeed in this breakout novel by Greg Gardner a cadre of terrorists brings about a transformation in this country that no one now anticipates And yet Gardner s narrative of unfolding horrors is neither a condemnation of Islam nor anthem to America s virtues It is a play by play through a harrowing month in the tribulation of ordinary people who comprise the bedrock of America during the course of a continuing nationwide atrocity Gripping engrossing and graphic without being grotesque I can argue that Black Friday is precisely what would happen from the White House to the newsrooms across the continent to the back roads around every town when a few dozen well trained well coordinated and determined fanatics do what in their perverse minds God demands of them David A Woodbury author of Tales to Warm Your Mind Ten Whimsically Morbid Short Stories The Clover Street News Fire Wind Yesterday A Tale of Ukraine and Khazaria and Babie Nayms Baby Names

Headlines That Matter Kavita Chandran, Saldene Lyte, 2025. Not every news announcement grabs a financial trader's attention, prompting them to initiate a buy or sell call. Glued to their screens every day, traders are alerted to important information by journalists who work with news agencies such as Reuters, Bloomberg, Associated Press, and Dow Jones, to name a few. American wires or regional wire services such as Agence France Presse, AFP Press Trust of India, PTI, or Algemeen Nederlands Persbureau, ANP. The urgent news flashes come from journalists who have impeccable news judgement along with the ability to think and write at great speed. What is it that these journalists look for in company press releases, remarks by political leaders, or comments by central bankers? How do they evaluate corporate scandals and communications on sensitive social and political issues? What about food recalls, labor disputes, and supply chain problems? Why do markets react to such headlines and news updates? Using many recent examples of headlines that influenced the markets, two former Bloomberg headline writers reveal the workings and thought processes of an adrenaline-packed team which caters to those who deal with money matters within seconds, day in and day out. The insights in this book benefit students of both business journalism and finance, as well as CEOs, corporate communications directors, and wealth managers, investors, and traders.
