Donna Bender Hood,2018-07-26 Since the ax blade was expertly honed and it was swung with precision and power perfect pieces of firewood fell on either side of the cutting stump Splitting perfect firewood was an art and Grayson Rivers was satisfied with his efforts As part of his fairly regular fitness routine he hand cut his own firewood at least as much as time would allow What people said about firewood was true Cut your own wood and it warmed you twice Cutting his own also made him thankful for the half ton gas wood splitter he used for the bulk of his serious woodcutting The Hunter

Chronicles Rick Parent,2018-02-08 Everyone loves wolves Always having a dog or two in the family Rick never experienced other animals outside a zoo In 1999 Rick married a true animal lover and owner of two more dogs for the family That was the limit until synchronicity reared its head putting Rick his wife and her children in a drive through zoo on the first day they could sell the first of a recent wolf litter This book is a diary of sorts to chronicle this chance meeting He reluctantly purchased a five week old baby wolf that he would name Hunter a week later These incredibly personal stories are a documentary of a rainbow of emotions as Rick and Hunter make their journey through life together The life lessons that can be learned from this amazingly complex species are tools and a reference point for our position on the planet The chronicles totally dispel the stereotypes about wolves and shed a humbling light on the most misunderstood species of all time Everyone loves wolves but Rick is blessed to have had a wolf love him

Learners Without Borders Yong Zhao,2021-06-30 The future of education centers empowered students in a global learning ecosystem Despite decades of reform the traditional borders of education graduation curriculum classrooms schools have failed to deliver on the goals of excellence and equity Despite massive societal changes education remains controlled by an old mindset It is time to change that limiting mindset and more importantly the ineffective practices in education To truly serve all learners future classrooms must remove the boundaries of learning and become student centered culturally responsive and personalized supportive and equitable environments where each student can direct their own learning and seek multiple pathways to skills and knowledge in a global learning ecosystem This compelling call for transformative change offers all involved in education Evidence based arguments that reveal the need to break the traditional borders that limit learning Strategies to personalize learning and remove the confinement of traditional pathways Examples from around the world to create equitable and student centric learning environments Resources for creating a school learning environment that expands opportunities for personalized learning into the global learning ecosystem It is time to now imagine a different kind of learning without borders and to begin the shifts in practice that will result in personalized learning for all students Places of Memory Alan
