The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education: An Evidence-Based Perspective Raymond P. Perry, John C. Smart, 2007-06-04 Pivotal to the transformation of higher education in the 21st Century is the nature of pedagogy and its role in advancing the aims of various stakeholders This book brings together pre eminent scholars from Australia Canada Europe the Middle East and the USA to critically assess teaching and learning issues that cut across most disciplines In addressing long standing and newly emerging issues the researchers examine the scientific evidence on what constitutes effective teaching in college classrooms on the psychometric integrity of measures of teaching effectiveness and on the use of such measures for tenure promotion and salary decisions Systematically explored throughout the book is the avowed linkage between classroom teaching and motivation learning and performance outcomes in students In so doing the book deals with the nexus between knowledge production by researchers and knowledge utility for end users made up of classroom instructors department heads deans directors and policymakers The book will appeal to researchers interested in teaching and learning faculty members developing evidence based pedagogical practices academic administrators and policymakers responsible for instituting teaching and learning protocols and faculty development officers promoting the effective teaching practices

Ecologies of Engaged Scholarship Miguel A. Guajardo, Francisco J. Guajardo, Leslie Ann Locke, 2018-04-19 Story and auto ethnography are study methods based on decolonizing and liberating research perspectives Stories auto ethnographies and other qualitative methodologies enable the researcher educator to be both a research instrument and an object in their study Stories allow for the examination of personal growth its effect on practice and their impact on community The researcher educator is able to witness her his own life as they collaborate with participants Through the use of story auto ethnography and other qualitative methodologies researchers educators can link the history of self within their community activist work to its present conditions as they map their collective community s future Ecologies of Engaged Scholarship explores the use of story and auto ethnography as a tool to know self and other in relationship to capacity building pedagogical processes and activist scholarship It highlights activist scholarship to better understand the epistemology and landscape of activist research Contributors to the book self identify as activist scholars or scholar activists and in their unique chapters they consider the values informing their work the origins and nature of their work and how they make meaning of their work They also consider how family and or community has been involved how previous schooling experiences have affected their trajectory and how particular relationships have worked to influence their philosophical understanding This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education
