It's 1983 in Wallingford New Jersey a sleepy bedroom community outside of Manhattan. Seventeen year old Edward Zanni a feckless Ferris Bueller type is Peter Panning his way through a carefree summer of magic and mischief. The fun comes to a halt however when Edward's father remarries and refuses to pay for Edward to study acting at Juilliard. Edward's truly in a bind. He's ineligible for scholarships because his father earns too much. He's unable to contact his mother because she's somewhere in Peru trying to commune with Incan spirits. And as a sure sign he's destined for a life in the arts Edward's incapable of holding down a job. So he turns to his loyal but immoral misfit friends to help him steal the tuition money from his father all the while practicing for his high school performance of Grease. Disguising themselves as nuns and priests they merrily scheme their way through embezzlement money laundering identity theft forgery and blackmail. But along the way Edward also learns the value of friendship hard work and how you're not really a man until you can beat up your father metaphorically that is. How I Paid for College is a farcical coming of age story that combines the first person tone of David Sedaris with the byzantine plot twists of Armistead Maupin. It is a novel for anyone who has ever had a dream or a scheme and it marks the introduction to an original and audacious talent. The Illustrated London News, 1874 The International Scholarship Book Daniel J. Cassidy, National Scholarship Research Service (San Rafael, Calif.), 1990 Weekly Florists' Review Gilbert Leonard Grant, 1913 Congressional Quarterly Weekly Report, 1983-07 Eastern School Music Herald, 1917 The Weekly Review, 1990
