Williams,2024-12-15 In this book Sherri Williams explores the digital activism of the Black social TV audience a subset of Black Twitter In addition to demands for social equality and shifts in social justice Williams argues the Black social TV audience advocated for a representation revolution in television leading to some shows being blocked from airing some being taken off the air and others even being revived Williams positions this activism as an extension of Black people's historic advocacy related to the use of their image dating back a century to when the NAACP attempted to block screenings of the notoriously racist 1915 film The Birth of a Nation This book details how Black audiences use of social media impacted the way television is watched developed and produced through digital discourse and activism primarily on Twitter now known as X Williams also demonstrates how Black content directors like Justin Simien and Quinta Brunson used social networks to develop their content and loyalty among audiences to ultimately bypass Hollywood's traditional gatekeepers Finally the book touches on contemporary events such as the COVID pandemic and Elon Musk's acquisition of Twitter have affected the ways in which Black content creators engage with their content and audience and vice versa Scholars of television studies social media studies cultural studies and sociology will find this book particularly useful Forest and Stream ,1897 Field and Stream ,1927 Why I Hate Green Beans

Lincee Ray,2018-02-06 If there is one thing Lincee Ray has learned over the years it's that the majority of women on the planet struggle with insecurities Our skinny jeans mock us Our just trying to help mothers are just driving us crazy Our social media feeds taunt us with everyone else's picture perfect lives It's enough to send you on a gummy bear bender while binge watching Friends reruns and not showering for a week Lincee knows She's been there Right there in fact Gummy bears and all For every woman who's ever wondered if she's unlovable uninteresting or unattractive Lincee offers her particular brand of hilarious and hard hitting self reflection Like a true friend she shows us that the fastest way to happiness is to embrace ourselves in all our imperfection trust that God knew what he was doing when he made us and maybe go buy a new tube of mascara Walk alongside Lincee as she discovers that her identity is not found in her job her relationship status her bank account or her social circle It's found in Christ Field & Stream ,1994-02 FIELD STREAM America's largest outdoor
