town average thirteen year old Jack Sullivan has been living in his tree house which he s armed to the teeth with catapults and a moat not to mention video games and an endless supply of Oreos and Mountain Dew scavenged from abandoned stores But Jack alone is no match for the hordes of Zombies and Winged Wretches and Vine Thingies and especially not for the eerily intelligent monster known only as Blarg So Jack builds a team his dorky best friend Quint reformed middle school bully Dirk Jack s loyal pet monster Rover and the fiercest girl Jack knows June With their help Jack is going to slay Blarg achieve the ultimate Feat of Apocalyptic Success and be average no longer Can he do it Childhood and Innocence in American Culture James M. Curtis,2023-08-01 This collection argues that the romanticized conflation of childhood and innocence in American culture has been on a steady decline at least since the 1960s largely due to postmodern critiques of overarching narratives involving both the child and the innocence of childhood Additionally this collection highlights and analyzes examples of children s literature and culture throughout the 20th century and into the 21st which pointedly defy traditional idealized notions of childhood Such an analysis serves to reiterate the idea that the romanticized notion of childhood which has pervaded American culture for over two centuries is little more than a cultural construction that bears little to no resemblance to the actual lived experience of American children New York ,2009-07 Patterns of Entrepreneurship Management Jack M.
