Recto named ES; Go next DOE chief

By ALEXIS ROMERO

With their names dragged into the controversy over corruption in flood control projects, Executive Secretary Luis Bersamin and Budget Secretary Amemar Pangandaman have resigned to give way to an investigation.

President Marcos accepted the resignation of the two officials, Presidential Communications Undersecretary Claire Castro said at a press briefing yesterday.

"Both officials responsibly offered and tendered their resignations out of delicadeza after their departments were mentioned in allegations related to the flood control anomaly currently under investigation and in recognition of the responsibility to allow the administration to address the matter appropriately," Castro said.

Minutes after the press briefing, she announced the resignation of Presidential Legislative Liaison

ICI takes Co videos with grain of salt

By RAINER ALLAN BONDA

Can resigned lawmaker Zaldy Co's allegations on social media about P100 billion worth of budget overruns be admissible as evidence in the ongoing flood control corruption probe?

Independent Commission for Infrastructure (ICI) executive director Brian Keith Renuika, at a press briefing yesterday, noted that the videos were uncorroborated affidavits and on the surface appeared to be highly edited video recordings.

"The commission will look into whether it is a verified information or not," he said.

President Marcos named Raigo Recto as the new executive secretary while Frederick Go will be the next chief of the Department of Finance. Luis Bersamin and Budget chief Amemar Pangandaman (inset) resigned after they were linked to the flood corruption case.

Business groups support economy amid political turmoil

By LOUELLA DESIDERIO

Six business groups yesterday affirmed their confidence in the Philippine economy despite an uncertain political climate.

"The Philippine business community remains strongly committed to supporting a competitive, resilient and inclusive economy," the Financial Executives Institute of the Philippines, Institute of Corporate Directors, Makati Business Club, Management Association of the Philippines, Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Philippine Finance Association said in a joint statement yesterday.

The statement was issued as the country grapples with massive corruption issues in flood control projects.

Last week, resigned Alko Bico partylist Rep. Zaldy Co made allegations linking President Marcos to 2025 budget overruns and kickbacks.

"In a time of increased uncertainty, our message is clear: the private sector remains united in its belief in the

Imee: BBM on drugs; Palace hits 'desperation'

Malacañang yesterday branded as a "desperate move" Sen. Imee Marcos' claim that her brother, President Marcos, and his wife Liza are using illegal drugs, dismissing it as an attempt to malign the First Couple.

Presidential Communications Undersecretary Claire Castro said the senator brought up a rehearsed insinuation in a bid to discredit the President before the 2025 elections.

"What is the reason behind the desperate move of Sen. Imee Marcos against her own brother and the First Lady?"

Inventing the Cloud Century Marcus Oppitz, Peter Tomsu, 2017-08-03 This book combines the three dimensions of technology society and economy to explore the advent of today's cloud ecosystems as successors to older service ecosystems based on networks. Further, it describes the shifting of services to the cloud as a long-term trend that is still progressing rapidly. The book adopts a comprehensive perspective on the key success factors for the technology compelling business models and ecosystems, including private, public, and national organizations. The authors explore the evolution of service ecosystems, describe the similarities and differences, and analyze the way they have created and changed industries. Lastly, based on the current status of cloud computing and related technologies like virtualization, the Internet of Things, fog computing, big data, and analytics, cognitive computing, and blockchain, the authors provide a revealing outlook on the possibilities of future technologies, the future of the Internet, and the potential impacts on business and society.

Algorithmic Cultures Robert Seyfert, Jonathan Roberge, 2016-10-04 This book provides in-depth and wide-ranging analyses of the emergence and subsequent ubiquity of algorithms in diverse realms of social life. The plurality of Algorithmic Cultures emphasizes: 1) algorithms increasing importance in the formation of new epistemic and organizational paradigms and 2) the multifaceted analyses of algorithms across an increasing number of research fields. The authors in this volume address the complex interrelations between social groups and algorithms in the construction of meaning and social interaction. The contributors highlight the performative dimensions of algorithms by exposing the dynamic processes through which algorithms themselves are the product of a specific approach to the world, frame reality, while at the same time organizing how people think about society. With contributions from leading experts from Media Studies, Social Studies of Science, and Technology, Cultural and Media Sociology from Canada, France, Germany, UK, and the USA, this volume presents cutting-edge empirical and conceptual research that includes case studies on social media platforms, gaming, financial trading, and mobile security infrastructures.

Resistance & Recovery in the #MeToo era, Volume I Kate Richmond, Nicole L. Johnson, 2024-02-15 Using an intersectional approach, this book amplifies the voices of those who were and continue to be at the frontlines resisting and responding to sexual violence during the rise of digital feminist movements, including NoMoreTimesUp and most notably MeToo. This book outlines the current socio-political landscape, including increased visibility of movements such as NoMoreTimesUp and most notably MeToo, and the public showcase of accused perpetrators becoming elected to the highest offices in the United States, e.g., Brett Kavanaugh's election to the Supreme Court, Donald Trump's election to the Presidency. It offers note to how this political landscape has impacted survivors and therapists alike The first of the two volumes include 10 chapters that provide a critique of the silencing of survivors who are marginalized e g women of color trans and queer survivors within the current movements and offer recommendations for how to center their experiences through an intersectional approach Both the volumes together cover a wide range of perspectives that bring to light the solidarity that was built among survivors regardless of identity and experience within the current socio political climate while continuing to center the voices of those who are most often marginalized The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy
