Young, Educated & Broke Jamie Borromeo, 2014-10-15 A millennial's travels through America's political and social landscape and through the financial struggles of her generation Young Educated Broke a travel journal memoir is the intertwined journey in self exploration of a young twenty something and her millennial cohort in America Borromeo's social commentary takes the reader around the world to witness firsthand her path to personal growth as she watches the tragedies and triumphs of her life mirror those of her generation During the 2008 economic collapse and the years that followed the author shares her emotional highs and lows and the insights gained The author and the generation of America's New Poor struggle to find a sense of identity purpose and security The questions begin to pile up Will I pay back my student loans Was the American Dream really a myth Will I ever be able to attain financial freedom and security While the generation as a whole is still grappling with these questions Borromeo's personal journey inward takes the reader through the answers she herself has found In her last destination on the Big Island of Hawaii the author looks inward and finds answers that hold tremendous value for her life that may yet serve her generation in an even more profound way

Mythomania: Tales of Our Times, from Apple to Isis Peter Conrad, 2017-01-10 Weaves ancient myth into modern celebrity and consumerist culture to expose the absurdity and occasional insanity of twenty first century society economy and politics Despite a proclaimed respect for scientific reason humans are still as intrigued by myth as their remote ancestors Laptops and smartphones are sold under a logo that invokes the forbidden fruit of the Garden of Eden skimpily clad classical nymphs cavort in TV reality shows Narcissus makes a comeback whenever we snap a selfie Mythical creatures such as handsome vampires abound in best selling novels Myth has also invaded the political realm now that terrorists brandish black flags and recite theological mantras as they martyr themselves In twenty seven self contained entries Conrad illuminates in his own remarkable way subjects from the British Queen to the Kardashians via Banksy vaping and the inception of the Large Hadron Collider In Judge Judy he shows a matronly Roman goddess dispensing justice with a fly swatter In the metamorphosis of Caitlyn Jenner from Olympic athlete and paterfamilias into idealized female form he finds parallels to the transformations of the residents of Mount Olympus Myths used to tell us where we came from Now alarmed but also elated by the pace of change in our society we need them to tell us where we are going
