Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've learned mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to making 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch every day You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping isn't a waste and reduces time to eat outside your home whether that's at a restaurant When making your daily meal prep the question is how many meals you can eat without having to cook each day or eat out Meal prepping isn't for everyone It is good for people who value convenience and save more time With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food while maximizing your time and budget is important to you then doing something different every day meal prepping is not the best option generally not seen as a meal prep method or maybe one other person does a whole meal Meal prepping for a whole family would be quite difficult but there are many things that would make it a more manageable task if food is stored in the refrigerator or freezer in a slow cooker In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the usefulness of refrigerated meals Since the level of acceptable hunger and texture and flavor will be subjective to the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines but the FDA and then follow them given your own preferences In general it is not more than a few days worth of food to make but I find that about a fifth of the food usually lasts for a week
