The Test of My Life Yuvraj Singh,2013-03-19 That day I cried like a baby not because I feared what cancer would do but because I didn t want the disease I wanted my life to be normal which it could not be For the first time Yuvraj Singh tells the real story behind the 2011 World Cup when on the field triumph hid his increasingly puzzling health problems and worrying illnesses In his debut book The test of my life he reveals how plagued with insomnia coughing fits that left him vomiting blood and an inability to eat he made a deal with God On the night before the 2011 ICC Cricket World Cup final Yuvraj prayed for the World Cup in return for anything God wanted In this book he lays bare his fears doubts and the lows he experienced during chemotherapy when he lost his energy his appetite and his hair and his battle to find the will to survive Poignant personal and moving The test of my life is about cancer and cricket but more importantly it is about the human will to fight adversity and triumph despite all odds

Secrets of an Untitled Mind Joshua Murphy Dobbs,2020-05-29 In the middle of the quarantine for COVID 19 after reading one memoir after another Joshua Murphy Dobbs found the inspiration to write his own memoir Like many others with nothing but time on his hands while out of work his story unfolded in rapid succession in just eight days His psychiatrist asked him if he was manic after he shared the news that he had just written an entire book since his last Telehealth appointment with her The book travels through his childhood of finding out he was biracial to a diagnosis of bipolar 1 while in a psych ward in the Army His struggles to find the right mix of medications would land him in jail more than once The story follows his life giving the reader hope Even though the story follows his life as closely as it can being a bipolar writer weaves the reader in and out of his life on a roller coaster In the end his tattoos remind him of who he will become

I Know How She Does It Laura Vanderkam,2017-01-03 Everyone has an opinion anecdote or horror story about women and work Now the acclaimed author of What the Most Successful People Do Before Breakfast shows how real working women with families are actually making the most of their time Having it all has become the subject of countless books articles debates and social media commentary with passions running high in all directions Many now believe this to be gospel truth Any woman who wants to advance in a challenging career has to make huge sacrifices She s unlikely to have a happy marriage quality time with her kids assuming she can have kids at all a social life hobbies or even a decent night s sleep But what if balancing work and family is actually not as hard as it s made out to be What if all those tragic anecdotes ignore the women who quietly but consistently do just fine with the juggle Instead of relying on scattered stories time management expert Laura Vanderkam set out to add hard data to the debate She collected hour by hour time logs from 1 001 days in the lives of women who make at least 100 000 a year And she found some surprising patterns in how these women spend the 168 hours that every one of us has each week Overall these women worked less and slept more than they assumed they did before they started tracking their time They went jogging or to the gym played with their children scheduled date nights with their significant others and had lunches with friends They made time for the things that gave them pleasure and meaning fitting the pieces together like tiles in a mosaic without adhering to overly rigid schedules that would eliminate flexibility and spontaneity Vanderkam shares specific strategies that her subjects use to make time for the things that really matter to them For instance they Work split shifts such as seven hours at work four off then another two at night from home This allows them to see their kids without falling behind professionally Get creative about what counts as quality family time Breakfasts together and morning story time count as much as daily family dinners and they re often easier to manage Take it easy on the housework You can free up a lot of time by embracing the philosophy of good enough and getting help from other members of your household or a cleaning service Guard their leisure time Full weekend getaways may be rare but many satisfying hobbies can be done in small bursts of time An hour of crafting feels better than an hour of reality TV With examples from hundreds of real women Vanderkam proves that you don t have to give up on the things you really want I Know How She Does It will inspire you to build a life that works one hour at a time
