Boyd,2025-09-24

This is the first book to focus on innovation as a response to globalization in soccer in the context of the global development of the world s most popular sport Concentrating on social innovation and on innovations in governance and organization in soccer s traditional heartlands and also at its global periphery the book explores some of the most important contemporary themes in the social scientific study of sport including fandom activism gender governance new media artificial intelligence greenwashing and sport for development The book features case studies from around the world including the United States Brazil T rkiye Finland England Spain Japan Morocco Uruguay and South Africa and it opens new theoretical perspectives on soccer as a vector of social development and on the intersection of sport and globalization This is fascinating reading for anyone with an interest in the sociology of sport sport management sport development soccer political science or global development

The Political Relevance of Food Media and Journalism Elizabeth Fakazis,Elfriede Fürsich,2023-01-31

Interrogating the intersections of food journalism and politics this book offers a critical examination of food media and journalism and its political potential against the backdrop of contemporary social challenges Contributors analyze current and historic examples such as BlackLivesMatter COVID 19 climate change Brexit food sovereignty and identity politics highlighting how food media and journalism reach beyond the commercial imperatives of lifestyle journalism to negotiate nationalism globalization and social inequalities The volume challenges the idea that food media journalism are trivial and apolitical by drawing attention to the complex ways that storytelling about food has engaged political discourses in the past and the innovative ways it is doing so today Bringing together international scholars from a variety of disciplines the book will be of great interest to scholars and students of journalism communication media studies food studies sociology and anthropology
