Generation Sharon Cowan, Simon Halliday, 2024-09-28 This book honors the diverse and path breaking work of Michael Adler a pioneer of socio legal scholarship in the UK The book brings together an international group of scholars established and emerging researchers from across the globe to develop key ideas generated by Adler s scholarship Building on his rich portfolio of creative work at the interface of law and social science the book explores themes that continue to resonate in contemporary debates about how best to understand the relationship between justice fairness and the modern administrative state Specifically the book re examines core issues which Adler as a key figure of the first generation of UK socio legal scholars explored including the relationship between official discretion and the rule of law the justice of internal administrative processes the importance of a bottom up perspective on justice power and accountability in the prison sector access to justice for social welfare claimants and the promise of viewing law through the lens of social science Access Rebecca Grant, 2025-06-24 From the award winning author of Birth a journey into the underground activist networks that have been working to protect women s autonomy over their bodies amidst legal political religious and cultural oppression over the past sixty years In this definitive eye opening history award winning author Rebecca Grant charts the reproductive freedom movement from the days before Roe through the seismic impact of Dobbs The stories in Access span four continents tracing strategies across generations and borders Grant centers those activists who have been engaged in direct action to help people get the abortions they need Their efforts involve no small measure of daring do spy craft sea adventures close calls undercover operations smuggling sequins legal dramas victories defeats and above all a deeply held conviction that all the risks are worth it for the cause In Access we meet a cast of brave bold and unforgettable women the founders of the Jane Collective a group of anonymous providers working clandestinely between Chicago apartments to perform abortions in the pre Roe years the originators and leaders of the abortion fund movement Ver nica Cruz S nchez a Mexican activist who works to support self managed abortion with pills and fights to free women targeted by the criminalization of abortion and Rebecca Gomperts a Dutch doctor who realizes that there is one place abortion bans cannot reach international waters Post Dobbs activist groups have once again stepped up and put themselves on the line to resist Building on the work of their feminist forebearers and international allies they are charting new pathways for access in the face of unprecedented acts to subjugate and control half of America s population Working above ground underground and in legal gray areas they ve helped people travel across state lines for care established telehealth practices and formed community networks to distribute pills for free to people who needed them Drawing on expert research and investigative reporting told with deep compassion and humanity by a journalist who has spent her career on the frontlines of the fight Access celebrates the bravery ingenuity and determination of women across decades who have fought for a fundamental human right and serves as an inspiring rallying cry for the work that lies ahead
