New York Magazine , 1985-05-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Born Again Bodies R. Marie Griffith, 2004-10-04 Fat People Don't Go to Heaven screamed a headline in the tabloid Globe in November 2000. The story recounted the success of the Weigh Down Workshop the nation's largest Christian diet corporation and the subject of extensive press coverage from Larry King Live to the New Yorker. In the United States today hundreds of thousands of people are making diet a religious duty by enrolling in Christian diet programs and reading Christian diet literature like What Would Jesus Eat and Fit for God. Written with style and wit far ranging in its implications and rich with the stories of real people Born Again Bodies launches a provocative yet sensitive investigation into Christian fitness and diet culture. Looking closely at both the religious roots of this movement and its present day incarnations R Marie Griffith vividly analyzes Christianity's intricate role in America's obsession with the body diet and fitness. As she traces the underpinning of modern day beauty and slimness ideals as well as the bigotry against people who are overweight Griffith links seemingly disparate groups in American history including seventeenth century New England Puritans Progressive Era New Thought adherents and late twentieth century evangelical diet preachers. 2 Days To Fitness Rick Bramos, Dr. Ron Grisanti,
