than any other sport baseball has developed its own niche in America's culture and psyche. Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game while others wax poetic about its players and plays. Many trace the beginnings of the civil rights movement in part to the Major League's decision to integrate and the words and phrases of the game, for example, pinch hitter and out in left field, have become common in our everyday language. From AARON HENRY onward, this book covers all of what might be called the cultural aspects of baseball as opposed to the number-rich statistical information so widely available elsewhere. Biographical sketches of all Hall of Fame players, owners, executives, and umpires, as well as many of the sportswriters and broadcasters who have won the Spink and Frick awards, join entries for teams, owners, commissioners, and league presidents. Advertising agents, drafts, illegal substances, minor leagues' oldest players, perfect games, retired uniform numbers, superstitions, tripleheaders, and youngest players are among the thousands of entries herein. Most entries open with a topical quote and conclude with a brief bibliography of sources for further research. The whole work is exhaustively indexed and includes 119 photographs.

Pan-African Chronology III Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2001-01-01 This third volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers 1914 through 1929, a time of two seminal events: World War I and the Black Awakening. In World War I, people of African descent fought for both sides, earning distinction on the battlefields of France as well as in the jungles and deserts of Africa. The Black Awakening, a period from 1919 through 1929, marked the dawning of global awareness of the contributions of African people to the culture of the world. The book is arranged by year, and events of each year are grouped by region. It also has two special biographical divisions for W. E. B. DuBois and Marcus Garvey.

The Echoing Green Joshua Prager, 2008-03-11 This is the untold story of the secret scandal behind baseball's most legendary moment: The Shot Heard Round the World. A Washington Post Best Book of the Year. At 3:58 p.m. on October 3, 1951, Bobby Thomson hit a home run off Ralph Branca. The ball sailed over the left field wall and into history. The Giants won the pennant. That moment, the Shot Heard Round the World, reverberated from the West Wing of the White House to the Sing Sing death house to the Polo Grounds clubhouse, where hitter and pitcher forever turned into hero and goat. It was also in that centerfield block of concrete that, after the home run, a Giant coach tucked away a Wollensak telescope. The Echoing Green places that revelation at the heart of a larger story, re-creating in extravagant detail and illuminating as never before the impact of both a moment and a long-guarded secret on the lives of Bobby Thomson and Ralph Branca.

Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents, 1974

The Last Carousel Nelson Algren, 2017-12-19 The fiction and reportage included in The Last Carousel, one of the final collections published during Nelson Algren's lifetime, was written on ships and in ports of call around the world and includes accounts of brothels in Vietnam and Mexico, stories of the boxing ring, and reminiscences of Algren's beloved Chicago White Sox, among other subjects. In this collection, not just Algren's intensity but his diversity are revealed and celebrated.
