Streaming by the Rest of Us Mia Consalvo, Marc Lajeunesse, Andrei Zanesco, 2025-02-18 An in depth investigation of the Twitch streamers who make up the largest population on the platform those streaming to small audiences or even no one The vast majority of people who stream themselves playing videogames online do so with few or no viewers In Streaming by the Rest of Us Mia Consalvo Marc Lajeunesse and Andrei Zanesco investigate who they are why they do so and why this form of leisure activity is important to understand Unlike the esports athletes and streaming superstars who receive the lion s share of journalistic and academic attention microstreamers are not in it for the money and barely have an audience In this the first book dedicated to the latter group the authors gather interviews from dozens of microstreamers from 2017 to 2019 to discuss their lives struggles hopes and goals For readers interested in livestreaming and Twitch in particular the book rethinks the medium s history through accounts of the everyday uses of webcams with particular attention to notions of liveness and authenticity These two concepts have become calling cards for the videogame livestreaming platform and underlie streamer motivations the construction of their practices whether casual serious or anywhere in between and the complex metas that take shape over time The book also looks at the authors own practices of livestreaming focusing on what can be gained through experiencing the lived reality of the practice Finally the authors explain how Twitch s platform studied from 2017 2023 informs how streamers structure their every day and how corporate ideologies bleed into real world spaces like TwitchCon
