Media Libraries in an Age of Unending Consumption Mike Van Esler, 2023-10-24 As the home video market upended traditional film industry models media libraries emerged as important sources of ancillary revenue The inflection point for media library exploitation came in 2007 when Netflix launched its streaming service relying on extensive licensing of film and television libraries to grow its subscriber base In this book Mike Van Esler examines how media libraries and business models have evolved since the home video era with particular emphasis placed on the streaming age of the past fifteen years Van Esler argues that media libraries have grown beyond their usages from the pre home video era to become central to today s corporate media strategy By studying the ways in which media library exploitation has scaled up since the turn of the new millennium the author identifies insights into larger media industry trends Ultimately this book explores the intersection of corporate media independent distributors private equity tech companies and audiences Scholars of media studies business and sociology will find this book of particular interest The Glocalization of Shanghai Disneyland Ni-Chen Sung,2021-04-11 Focusing on Disney s production of Shanghai Disneyland this book examines how the Chinese state and the local market influence Disney s ownership and production of the identities and the representations of Shanghai Disneyland Qualitative methods are here applied to combine both primary and secondary data including document analysis participant observation and in depth interviews Shanghai Disneyland is purposely created to be different from the other Disneylands under the authentically Disney and distinctly Chinese mandate In order to survive and thrive in China Disney carefully constructs Shanghai Disneyland as Disneyland with Chinese characteristics Previous studies tend to link Disney with cultural imperialism however this book argues that it is not imperialism but glocalization that promotes a global company s interests in China In particular the findings suggest state capital led glocalization glocalization led by economic capital of the state direct investment and economic capital with the state market potential Furthermore the four categories of glocalization with different conditions considerations and consequences illustrate various global local dynamics in the process of a global formation of locality The Glocalization of Shanghai Disneyland will appeal to students and scholars of sociology communication studies business studies and Asian studies more broadly Mass Communication Ralph E.
