INVENTING THE TRUTH: Memory and Its Tricks - A Gay Life Lucien L Agosta PhD,2022-09-15 INVENTING THE TRUTH MEMORY AND ITS TRICKS offers a collection of essays dealing with the author's life experiences as a gay man. Because exact accuracy is alien to the way memory works, the verifiable fictions in this book are necessarily inventions of the truth. Included essays examine the author's early cross-dressing and other childhood challenges to his birth gender, the important formative influences on him of his Catholic parish and school and the local public library and his belated and complicated coming out as a gay man. Another essay offers a dialectic between lust and love. Defining himself as a Promiscuous Hedonist for most of his adult life, the author at long last discovered that love was real and that he could love another man in his own gay way. Subsequent essays investigate the influence on the author of his two immigrant grandfathers and the unsavory memories of a racist past growing up in Louisiana in the 1950s, 60s and 70s. A further essay explores the author's primal fears of darkness and death and how he achieved a satisfactory resolution of those fears. A final essay explores the reams of war time letters that constituted the courtship of the author's parents who maintained their connection through letters for the nearly three years they were apart during WWII. These letters focus on the challenging beginnings of a 54 year love affair as well as on conditions during the war of a soldier overseas and his intended at home in Ohio whom he was courting by near daily correspondence. The essays in this book offer accounts of seminal remembered experiences in the author's past now interpreted in a language unavailable to him at the time those experiences were occurring. In these reliable accounts, the author tells the truth about his gay life in the most honest way he knows how to invent it.

Dialogues of the Sleeping Mind E. L Alban,2011-05 Solitude, wanderlust, a thirst for love for life and for self knowledge spin themselves into insomnia and drive Maria Diaz, a twenty six year old Math teacher from Miami into a search for answers which takes her into her own brain during sleep. It is a magic world where her id, her libido, her muses and her conscience come alive and reveal her inner self, her agnosticism, her disdain for her overextended virginity, her disillusionment with her career and the curse and blessing of growing up with two cultures in the U S. But the human brain takes back what it gives. All memory of the night's proceedings is confiscated upon awakening except for minimal token wisps of dreams. Even so, she manages the Promethean task of bringing to light her dark world of sleep. How she steals the night's forbidden treasures and thus finds balance in her life is her story. The author, born Luis Eduardo Alban in Ecuador, S A in 1938, came to Savannah, Georgia in 1952, a city which has been home since then. He received his A B and PhD in Economics from the University of Georgia. His professional life has been entirely in academe, teaching Economics, Statistics and Quantitative methods. Since his retirement, in 2000 he has traveled extensively in Europe and South America and has pursued his love for languages and literature publishing poetry in regional literary periodicals and a compilation of short stories about words This is his first novel Married for 46 years to JoAnn Cool from Kansas they now divide their year between Georgia and Kansas They have two children
